7. A newspaper, if posted in a cover, must have such cover open at both ends, so as to admit of easy inspection,† otherwise it will be treated as a letter.

8. The title of every newspaper must be exposed to view.

9. A newspaper, or packet of newspapers, which contains any enclosure except supplements, is charged as a letter, unless the enclosure be such as might be sent at the book rate of postage, and the entire packet be sufficiently prepaid as a book packet, in which case it is allowed to pass.

10. A newspaper which has any letter, or any communication of the nature of a letter, written in it or upon its cover, is charged as an unpaid or insufficiently paid letter.

11. No packet of newspapers may be above 14 lbs. in weight, 2 feet in length, 1 foot in width, or 1 in depth.

Inland Book Post.

1. The postage is one halfpenny for every 2 oz. or part of 2 oz. If unpaid it is charged double; and if posted partially prepaid, with double the deficiency.

2. A book-packet may contain any number of separate books or other publications, photographs (when not on glass, or in cases containing glass or any like substance), drawings, prints, or maps, and any quantity of paper, or any other substance in ordinary use for writing or printing upon; and the books or other publications, prints, maps, &c., may be either printed, written, engraved, lithographed, or plain, or any mixture of these. Further, all legitimate binding, mounting, or covering of a book, &c., or of a portion thereof, is allowed, whether such binding, &c., be loose or attached; as also rollers in the case of prints or maps, markers (whether of paper or otherwise) in the case of books, pens or pencils in the case of pocket-books, &c., and, in short, whatever is necessary for the safe transmission of such articles, or usually appertains thereto; but the binding, rollers, &c., must not be sent as a separate packet.

Circulars—i.e., letters which, from internal evidence, appear to be intended for transmission in identical terms to several persons, and the whole or greater part of which is produced by means of ordinary type, engraving, lithography, or any other mechanical process—may also be sent by book post.

3. But a book-packet may not contain any letter, or communication of the nature of a letter‡ (whether separate or otherwise), unless it be a circular letter; nor any enclosure sealed or in any way closed against inspection; nor any other enclosure not allowed by

* Inland letters are those which pass between places in the United Kingdom, including the Isle of Man, the Orkney, Shetland, Scilly, and Channel Islands.

† In order that no failure may occur in the delivery of newspapers through the covers becoming detached, it is recommended that the addresses be written on exposed parts of the newspapers themselves as well as on the covers.

‡ Entries merely stating who sends the book, &c., or to whom it is given, are not regarded as a letter.

Rule 2. If this Rule be infringed, the entire packet is charged as a letter. *

4. A book-packet may be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in a cover entirely open at both ends, so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; † otherwise it is treated as a letter. It may, however, be tied at the ends with string.

5. No Book-packet may be above 5 lbs. in weight, nor above 1 ft. 6 in. in length, 9 in. in width, or 6 in. in depth, unless it be sent to or from one of the Government Offices.

6. When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, &c., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, book-packets may be kept back till the next despatch, or delivery.

Inland Post Cards.

1. Official Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp—double or reply Post Cards impressed with a halfpenny stamp on each portion of them—and private Cards embossed at the Office of Inland Revenue with halfpenny stamps—may be transmitted between places in the United Kingdom with letters printed or written upon the back. Adhesive stamps are not accepted in payment of the postage.

2. The front (or stamped) side is for the address only, in addition to the printed words "Post Card" and "The address only to be written on this side." There must be nothing else written, printed, or otherwise impressed on it, nor must there be any writing or printing across the stamp. On the reverse side any communication, whether of the nature of a letter or otherwise, may be written or printed. Nothing whatever may be attached; nor may the card be folded, cut, or otherwise altered. If any one of these rules be infringed, the card will be charged 1d. on delivery.

3. When, owing to a great and unusual influx of letters, books, &c., the transmission or delivery of the letters would be delayed if the whole mail were dealt with without distinction, Post Cards (unless paid for and posted as late letters) may be kept back until the next despatch or delivery.

The conditions on which private cards are embossed with a halfpenny stamp can be ascertained at the Office of Inland Revenue.

It will be seen from the foregoing rules, that there is no legal way of sending a letter, other than a circular letter, through the post for a postage of a halfpenny, except by means of a post card.

It must not be supposed that, because a post card, which is open to inspection, may have a letter written or printed upon it, any card whatever, and even any piece of paper, if only it be open to inspection, may be sent through the post with a letter written or printed upon it for a postage of a halfpenny.

It is well, therefore, to explain for the guidance of the public—

1. That the letter-rate of postage must be prepaid for any communication of the nature of a letter, whether it be placed in a closed envelope or in an open cover, unless a post card be used for the purpose, or unless the letter be a "circular letter."

2. That cards having merely a halfpenny adhesive stamp affixed to them must not bear any communication of the nature of a letter, unless it be a "circular letter."

Large numbers of letters, not being circular letters, are from time to time found in halfpenny wrappers, contrary to the express provisions of the book post; and, as the officers of the department are instructed to surcharge all such letters with additional postage, it will save not only trouble to the Post Office but annoyance to the public, if care be taken always to pay letter postage for letters other than circular letters, unless they be written or printed on post cards.

INLAND PARCELS POST.

Parcels are accepted at all Post Offices for transmission by the Inland Parcels Post under the following general conditions in regard to weights, dimensions, and rates of postage, viz.: —

Weights and Postage.—The rate of postage, to be prepaid in ordinary postage stamps, will be—for an Inland Postal Parcel of a weight of—

Not exceeding 1 lb.,	-	-	3d.
Exceeding 1 lb., and not exceeding 3 lbs.,	-		6d.
" 3 lbs., " 5 lbs.,	-		9d.
" 5 lbs., " 7 lbs.,	-		1s.

Dimensions.—The dimensions allowed for an Inland Postal Parcel will be—Maximum length, 3 feet 6 inches; maximum length and girth combined, 6 feet.

Examples.—A parcel measuring 3 feet 6 inches in its longest dimension may measure as much as 2 feet 6 inches in girth, i.e., around its thickest part; or—a shorter parcel may be thicker; e.g. if measuring no more than 3 feet in length, it may measure as much as 3 feet in girth, i.e. around its thickest part. Parcels must not be posted in a letter-box, but must be taken in to a Post Office and handed over the counter.

Time of delivery in Glasgow according to distance, 9.15 a.m. to 11.15 a.m.; 2.15 p.m. to 4.15 p.m.; 5.30 p.m. to 7.30 p.m. Business is transacted at Head Office from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m. No business on Sundays.

Posting of Parcels.—If a parcel be posted in a letter box it is not forwarded by Parcels Post, but is treated as a letter, or as a book packet, if it can pass under Book Post regulations. The address of a parcel must be clearly written, either on the outer wrapper or on a separate address label securely fastened to the parcel; and the necessary stamp or stamps, to prepay the postage, must in all cases be placed (as in the case of letters) close above the address.

Parcels addressed to the Channel Islands (Jersey, Guernsey, Alderney, Sark, and the adjacent inhabited islets) are received from the public under the same general conditions with regard to weight and size, and at the same rates of postage, as parcels for all other portions of the United Kingdom; but as the Channel Islands, in relation to the customs laws of the United Kingdom, are subject to the same restrictions as foreign countries, such parcels are liable to customs examination at the port of arrival, and the sender is required to make a declaration of contents

* It is the duty of Postmasters, whenever they have ground for suspecting an infringement of any of the above conditions, and occasionally even when there is no ground for suspicion, to open and examine book-packets posted at, or passing through, their office.

† In order to secure the return of book-packets which cannot be delivered, the names and addresses of the senders should be printed or written outside; thus "From ——— ——— of ———."

upon a special form provided for the purpose at the office where the parcel may be posted. Goods intended to be warehoused in the Channel Islands, or on which it is intended to claim "drawback" of duty on subsequent exportation from the Channel Islands, are not accepted for transmission by Parcels Post.

Parcels for the Isle of Man are treated in all respects in the same way as parcels for places in the United Kingdom generally. They are liable to examination by the officers of customs; but the sender is not (as in the case of the Channel Islands) called upon to furnish a declaration of contents.

Re-direction.—On receipt of a properly-signed authority, a parcel may be re-directed under the following regulations:—

If the re-direction be from one place to another within the same delivery, the parcel, not having been delivered, and being re-directed by an officer of the department, is liable to no charge for re-direction; but if re-directed by any person other than an officer of the department, or to an address in another delivery, it is liable to additional postage at the full prepaid rate for each re-direction. If it has not been delivered and is re-directed by an officer of the department, prepayment for re-direction is not compulsory, but a parcel which has been delivered as addressed is not accepted for re-transmission unless the postage for re-direction be prepaid.

A request for the re-direction of letters is not held to include the re-direction of parcels, for which it is necessary to hand in a separate instruction.

Returned Parcels.—In order to facilitate the return of parcels which cannot be delivered, it is most desirable that the name and address of the sender should appear on the outside of every parcel.

If a parcel which cannot be delivered bears on the cover the name and address of the sender, a printed notice is sent to him by post, informing him that the parcel (if not claimed in the meantime by the addressee) will be given up to him or to any person whom he may direct to call for it, or will be returned to him by post.

If the parcel is called for by the sender or his agent, or if it is returned to him by post, it is liable to a charge of 1d. for each day or part of a day after the expiration of two clear days following that on which the notice has been sent.

If the sender elects to have the parcel sent back to him by post, he must return the printed notice, with stamps sufficient to cover new postage at the full rate, and also to cover any other charges to which the parcel may be liable, including the charge of 1d. a day described above. The parcel is then forwarded to him prepaid by stamps affixed thereon.

If no reply is received within six days after the date of the notice, or if the Postmaster has reason to believe that application is made for the parcel by a person who is neither the sender nor the addressee nor duly authorized by either, or if the sender fails to pay the charges due on the parcel, the parcel is sent to the Returned Letter Office.

If a parcel which cannot be delivered does not bear on the cover the name and address of the sender, it is sent to the Returned Letter Office, where it is opened and examined.

If upon such examination the name and address of the sender are ascertained, a printed notice such as is described above is sent to him, and the parcel is treated in the same manner as a parcel upon the cover of which the name and address of the sender appears.

If the name and address of the sender cannot be ascertained from the examination of the parcel, the name of the addressee of such parcel and the Post Office at which it was posted are entered on a list, which is exhibited in a conspicuous position at the Returned Letter Office of the District for inspection by the public.

Personal applications for parcels entered on such lists are entertained for three months from the date of entry, after which the parcels are finally disposed of.

Prohibited Articles.—The regulations under which certain articles are prohibited from transmission by the Letter Post will—with a few exceptions—apply equally to the Parcels Post. For instance, Gunpowder, Lucifer Matches, anything liable to sudden combustion, bladders containing liquid, and Live Animals, will be excluded from the Parcels Post. But Glass Bottles, Fish, Game, Meat, and all other articles not above mentioned, now excluded from the Letter Post, will be accepted to go by Parcels Post conditionally upon their being packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mails and to the officers of the Post Office.

Packing of Parcels.—The public will greatly assist the work of the Post Office, and help towards the safe delivery of parcels, by taking care that they are in all cases strongly and securely packed, especially those with fragile or perishable contents. It must be borne in mind, although, of course, every care will be taken by the officers, that such a parcel must be several times handled before it reaches its destination, and will probably have to be packed with many others of a different kind and shape, or more weighty and bulky. It should not, therefore, be made up in paper of poor quality or loosely tied round with twine. Cardboard boxes and unprotected band-boxes are especially liable to damage. Parcels containing Scissors, Needles, Knives and Forks, or other Sharp Instruments, will not be accepted unless packed so as to prevent them from doing injury. Liquids, or semi-liquids, will not be accepted unless in bottles or cans securely stoppered, and bottles will be accepted only when so packed as to be secure from breakage. Powders must be so packed that they cannot escape. Parcels, the contents of which emit a strong odour, such as Fish, Game, Camphor, Pepper, Coffee, &c., must be packed with particular care, in order to guard against their causing damage to the Parcels Mails.

Addresses.—It is very desirable that parcels should be fully addressed, and that the name of the sender should also appear, in case it may be found that the parcel cannot be delivered.

Sunday.—As parcels are not delivered on Sunday, fish, game, and other perishable articles should be posted in time for a delivery on Saturday.

Not to be given back to the Sender.—The rule forbidding that a letter should be handed back to the sender applies equally to a parcel.

Bankrupts' Parcels.—The Post Office rules which apply to bankrupts' letters apply equally to bankrupts' parcels.

Suggestions.—(a) Mercantile firms and others who may have to post a large number of parcels at one time, will facilitate the despatch of the parcels by sending them to the Post Office in batches, and as early as possible. (b) The risk of delay in the transmission of parcels will be largely obviated if senders of parcels in large quantities (whether it be the intention to post the parcels daily or at regular or irregular intervals) will so far as possible notify their intentions to the nearest Postmaster or Sub-Postmaster as early beforehand as convenient. It is not essential that the number and weight of the parcels and the frequency of posting should be specified with absolute precision; it will be sufficient if a general idea be given, so that some provision over and above the ordinary means available may be arranged for in advance.

EXCEPTIONAL RATES OF POSTAGE.

Addresses to the Queen and Petitions to Parliament.

1. Petitions and addresses to the Queen, forwarded direct or through a member of either House of Parliament, are exempt from postage. Petitions to members of either House so addressed are also exempt, provided they do not exceed 2 lbs. in weight, and, if in covers, are in open covers. There must be no inclosure; any inclosure, unless it bear the proper number of postage stamps, will be charged as a letter.

2. Their is no restriction as to the size of these petitions or addresses.

Parliamentary Proceedings.

1. Printed Votes or Proceedings of the Imperial Parliament, in open covers, having the words "Parliamentary Proceedings" written or printed thereon, may be sent within the United Kingdom and to the Colonies and those Foreign States to which there is a Book Post, at the book rate of postage; the prepayment, as regards inland packets, being optional. The limits as to size and weight are not applicable to Parliamentary Proceedings.

REGULATIONS AS TO PREPAYMENT, REGISTRATION, &c.

Modes of prepayment.

The prepayment of Inland letters, newspapers, and book packets can only be effected by means of postage stamps—except that at the Chief Office, Glasgow, inland letters and book packets may be prepaid in money, provided the amount paid be never less than £5, and the letters and book packets be tied in bundles representing a postage of 5s. each, with the addresses arranged in the same direction. The prepayment, however, cannot be made partly in money and partly with stamps.

Registration.

1. The fee for registering a letter, newspaper, book-packet, or other article, passing through the post between any two places in the United Kingdom is twopence.

2. No article addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered, unless it be addressed to the care of a person or firm.

3. Every article presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong cover, securely fastened. If the article contains money it must, in order to gain the benefit of the guarantee described at par. 9, be enclosed in a registered letter envelope sold by the Post Office, and if coins are sent, they must on no account be put in loose, but must be packed and enclosed in such a way as to move about as little as possible.

4. Registered articles must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee; except official letters for Government Offices in London, Dublin, or Edinburgh, which may be registered on prepayment, in stamps, of the registration fee only.

5. Every article to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it, and it should on no account be dropped into a letter-box. If, contrary to this rule, an article marked "Registered" be dropped into the letter box it will, if directed to any place in the United Kingdom, be liable to a registration fee of 8*d*., instead of the ordinary fee of 2*d*.

6. At all Post Offices the latest time for posting registered articles on payment of the ordinary fee is shown on the notice exhibited in the Post Office window. Usually this time is fixed at half an hour before the closing of the Letter Box; but at the Head Office articles bearing a late fee of fourpence, in addition to the ordinary registration fee, may be registered at any time within the half hour, until the letter-box is closed, except for the English Limited Mail, for which they must be posted before 4.45 p.m., and on payment of a late fee of 4d. until 5.15 p.m.

7. When several letters are sent by the same person for registration they should be accompanied with a list (in duplicate) of the addresses; one list to be retained at the Post Office, and the other, when signed, to be returned by the bearer. This practice (which is adopted by many bankers) saves time both to the public and the Department.

8. The registration of articles makes their transmission much more secure, inasmuch as they can be traced through their whole course; thus the loss of a registered article is a rare occurrence. Nevertheless, large sums of money or other articles of great value should not be sent through the post, even if registered; as the machinery of the Department is not arranged with a view to such transmissions. If sent unregistered valuable articles are exposed to risk, and offer a temptation which ought not to be afforded.

Inland letters or packets which contain coin, watches, or jewellery, if posted without registration, are treated as registered, and charged on delivery with a registration fee of eightpence in addition to the ordinary postage; and any such letters or packets which cannot be registered in time to be forwarded by the Mail for which they are posted, are detained for the next despatch.

9. By law the Postmaster General is not responsible for the safe delivery of registered articles, but henceforth he will be prepared to make good the contents of a registered article lost while passing through the Post to the extent of £2 in certain cases, provided that the sender duly observed all the conditions of registration required; that the article was securely enclosed in a reasonably strong cover; and, if it contained money, that it was enclosed in one of the registered letter envelopes sold by the Post Office for the purpose; that application was made to the secretary of the Post Office immediately the loss was discovered. (When the complaint is that the contents of a letter or packet have been abstracted, the envelope must accompany the application, otherwise the question will not be entertained). That the Postmaster General, whose decision shall be final, is satisfied that the loss occurred while the article was in the custody of the British Post Office, and was not caused by any fault on the part of the sender. [The word "loss" here does not include damage to an article which in fact reaches its destination, or destruction by fire or shipwreck, or by the dishonesty or negligence of any person not in the employment of the Post Office.]

10. No town letter carrier is allowed to take a letter to be registered; but rural letter carriers will take letters for registration on their outward and inward walks, whenever it is practicable for them to do so.

Re-direction.

1. Every inland re-directed letter, post-card, or other postal packet, is liable to an additional postage (at the prepaid rate) for each re-direction, unless both the original and the second address be within the delivery of the same Post Office, or Sub-Office, or rural walk, and the re-direction be made by an Officer of the Post Office.

Exception.—No charge for re-direction is made on Government letters.

2. An inland registered letter, when re-directed to any place within the United Kingdom, is only liable to the same additional charge as an ordinary letter.

3. If an inland registered letter, when re-directed, instead of being taken back to the Post Office to be dealt with as a registered letter, is dropped into the letter box as an ordinary letter (the word "registered" not having been erased, or having been erased in pencil only), it becomes liable to the same treatment as any other letter which is marked "registered" and found in the letter box, and must be surcharged with a registration fee of eightpence, minus the value of any stamps already affixed for the registration.

4. Notices of removal, and applications for letters to be re-directed must, in all cases, be duly signed by the persons to whom the letters are addressed, and in provincial towns they must be sent to the local Postmaster. Printed forms of notice can be obtained at the Head Office on application.

5. A Postmaster is not bound to re-direct letters for a person temporarily leaving his home, and not having a private bag or box, unless the house be left uninhabited.

6. Letters addressed to non-commissioned officers, schoolmasters in the army, schoolmistresses in the army, private soldiers, and seamen in the navy, re-directed from one part of the United Kingdom to another, or from the United Kingdom to a place abroad (when the removal is on service), provided the original postage is prepaid and the letters do not exceed half an ounce in weight, will be delivered to them without any charge for re-direction.

Delivery.

1. Letter Carriers are prohibited from distributing any letters, newspapers, &c., except such as have passed through a Post Office. Nor are they allowed to receive any payment beyond the postage for the delivery or collection of any letter, &c.; nor to deviate from the route laid down for them. The prohibition from receiving payment in addition to the postage does not, however, extend to Christmas boxes.

2. No person living within an official delivery, unless he rent a private box, can claim to have his letters delivered at the office window if a delivery by letter carrier or a despatch by messenger is about to take place; but letters which arrive by a mail after which there is no immediate delivery by letter carrier, may be obtained by any person on application at the office window, so long as the office is open for delivery.

3. When letters directed to a Post Office for persons who reside within a free delivery from such office, but who have no private box, arrive by a mail for which there is a delivery from house to house, a Postmaster may refuse to deliver them at the window, and may send them out by the Letter Carriers, except such as are addressed to the military in barracks.

4. Any person can have a private box who is willing to pay the appointed fee. The fee goes to the revenue, and is at the rate of £3 per annum, payable in advance. Special arrangements are made for locked bags to and from the renters of private boxes and the Post Office.

A Returned Letter Office is established in Glasgow, and all undeliverable letters addressed to Glasgow and its sub-offices are disposed of there.

On reaching the Returned Letter Office a letter originating in the United Kingdom is at once opened, and if found to contain the writer's address is returned to him. If it does not contain either the writer's address or an article of value the letter is destroyed. Any letter or packet which on being opened is found to contain value is, for its safety, recorded and returned registered and, unless registered at the time of posting, the registration fee of 2d. is charged on the sender. Letters bearing the sender's name and address impressed or printed on the envelopes are returned unopened.

After being retained for periods varying from one week to two months, foreign and colonial letters are, with few exceptions, returned unopened to the countries from which they were received.

At every Money Order Office the Postmaster is required to keep for sale to the public a sufficient stock of the different postage stamps in use; envelopes with an embossed penny postage stamp; registered letter envelopes; newspaper wrappers with an impressed halfpenny and penny postage stamps; and inland and foreign post cards.

At Post Offices, which are not Money Order Offices, sub-postmasters are required to keep ½d. and 1d. stamps, post cards, and registered letter envelopes only; but they are bound, on application, to procure postage stamps of other values, embossed postage envelopes, and newspaper wrappers.

Impressed Bill Stamps of the respective values of 1d., 2d., 3d., 6d., 9d., and 1s., are for sale at the Chief Office, Branches, &c.

Dog and Gun Licenses are issued at all Money Order Offices.

Every rural messenger is authorized to sell penny postage stamps and registered letter envelopes, or (if he have no stamps in his possession) he must receive the postage in money, and on his arrival at the Post Office affix stamps carefully to the letters.

Payment of postage cannot be made by means of postage stamps which have been torn, cut, or otherwise rendered imperfect; or of embossed or impressed stamps cut out from the envelopes, cards, or wrappers on which such stamps were embossed or impressed (even although the stamps have not been before used or sent by post). Applications for allowance on spoilt postage stamps, embossed envelopes, post cards, or newspaper wrappers, which have not passed through the post, should be made to the Distributor of Stamps, Inland Revenue. Such applications, however, can only be entertained if the stamps or other articles have been spoilt or become useless within the period of six months preceding the date of application. In the case of envelopes, cards, or wrappers, the applications must be accompanied by these articles intact; as no allowance can be granted on the embossed or impressed stamps if cut therefrom.

Postage Stamps purchased from the Public.

All postmasters in the United Kingdom at whose offices money order business is transacted, are permitted, though not compelled, to purchase postage stamps from the public (provided the stamps be not soiled or otherwise damaged), at a charge of 2½ per cent.; the charge, however, never being less than one halfpenny. Under this arrangement the payments are as follows:—

	The full price minus.
For stamps not exceeding 1s. 8d. in value,	½d.
Above 1s. 8d., and not exceeding 3s. 4d.,	1d.
" 3s. 4d., " " 5s. -	1½d.
" 5s., " " 6s. 8d.,	2d.
" 6s. 8d., " " 8s. 4d,	2½d.

and so on.

In order to prevent the temptation to steal stamps attached to letters, which might be afforded by facilities for selling them, single stamps cannot be purchased. They must in all cases be presented in strips of not less than two.

In consequence of representations made to the Post Office by various firms, that there is reason to believe that their postage stamps were purloined by persons in their employ, the Department has recommended that the initials of firms, &c., be perforated through the stamps by means of a machine devised for the purpose, and Postmasters have been instructed not to purchase such stamps. The perforation of the stamps on post cards, newspaper wrappers, and embossed envelopes with initials is also not objected to.

Paper taken by the public to the Inland Revenue Office can be impressed with postage stamps under conditions which may be learnt on application at that office.

Articles not allowed to be sent by Post.

1. It is forbidden to forward by post any indecent or obscene print, painting, photograph, lithograph, engraving, book or card, or any other indecent or obscene article, or any letter, newspaper, publication, packet, or card having thereon any words, marks, or designs of an indecent, obscene, libellous, or grossly offensive character. Anything posted contrary to this prohibition will be stopped and sent to the Returned Letter Office.

2. Postmasters are instructed not to receive any lettter which there is good reason to believe contains anything likely to injure the contents of the mail bag, or to do bodily harm to any officer of the Post Office. If such a packet be posted without the Postmaster's knowledge, or if at any time before its despatch he should discover any such packet, he is directed not to forward it, but to report the case, with the address of the packet, to the Secretary.

The following are examples of the articles referred to:—

A glass bottle, or glass in any form; leeches, game, fish, meat, fruit, vegetable, or anything of a greasy or oily nature; bladders or other vessels containing liquids; gunpowder, lucifer matches, or anything which is explosive or liable to sudden combustion; razors, scissors, forks, or other sharp instruments are also forbidden, except when sent in packets of samples to the foreign countries mentioned in Rule 7, page 13.

MISCELLANEOUS REGULATIONS AND SUGGESTIONS.

1. The Post Office is not, by law, responsible for any loss or inconvenience which may arise from the non-delivery, mis-sending, or mis-delivery of any letter, book, or other postal packet (even if the packet be registered). Nor is it responsible for any injury which a packet may sustain in its transmission.

2. Postal packets which are likely to suffer from great pressure should be placed in strong covers. No fragile article should be sent by post at all.

3. No information can be given respecting letters which pass through a Post Office except to the persons to whom they are addressed; and in no other way is official information of a private character allowed to be made public. A Postmaster, may, however, give an address if he has no reason to believe that the person whose address it is would disapprove of his doing so.

4. Provision having been made, by means of the Post Office Guide, and the Glasgow Local Guide, to supply full and authentic information on all postal matters, the public should abstain, as much as possible, from applying for such information to the officers of the department. For any error in a reply to a verbal application the Department does not hold itself responsible.

5. Postmasters are not allowed to return any letter or other packet to the writer or sender, or to any one else, or to delay forwarding it to its destination, according to the address, even though a request to such effect be written thereon.

6. Postmasters are not bound to give change, nor are they authorized to demand change; and when money is paid at a Post Office, whether as change or otherwise, no question as to its right amount, goodness, or weight can be entertained after it has been removed from the counter.

7. Postmasters are not bound to weigh any letters or other packets for the public, but they may do so if their duty be not thereby impeded.

8. If a letter be forwarded under cover to any Postmaster, with a request that he will re-post it at his office, the letter, on being re-posted, will be endorsed with the words "posted at ———, under cover to the Postmaster of ———."

9. Every address should be legible and complete. When a letter is sent to a Post Town the last word in the address should be the name of that town, except when the town is but little known, or when there are two Post Towns of the same name, or when the name of the town is identical with or very like the name of some foreign town or country. In such cases the name of the County should be added. Thus, the last part of the address of a letter to Newport in Monmouthshire should be—

"Newport,

Monmouthshire."

10. When a letter is sent to a place where there is only a Sub-office, the name of the Head Office should be given. Letters posted in one part of the United Kingdom and intended for another (as, for example, letters posted in Scotland and intended for England) should have the name of the Country to which they are sent added to the address, unless the letters be intended for either London, Glasgow, Edinburgh, Dublin, or other very large towns, when such addition is unnecessary.

11. The number, too, of the house should appear; its omission being a cause of delay in the sorting; and tending to retard the general delivery. In the case of letters for places abroad, the name of the country as well as the town should be given in full, and should be the last word in the address. Attention to this latter precaution will often assist in deciphering the name of a town, and prevent the letter from being mis-sent when there are towns of the same name in different countries. For example: a letter intended for London in Western Canada, but simply addressed "London, W.C.," would be forwarded to the Western Central District of the Metropolis in England.

12. Letters for well-known firms and persons in Glasgow are sometimes addressed "Glasgow" only; but this practice often causes delay in their delivery. Letters for strangers or for person whose address is not known at the Chief Office, simply addressed "Glasgow" (and not "Post Office," or "Poste Restante, Glasgow,") are not delivered from the Poste Restante, but are sent to the Returned Letter Office.

13. A letter addressed to a Post Office to be called for is retained one month; and if not called for by the end of that time, is sent to the Returned Letter Office to be sent back to the writer. But if the letter be addressed to a Post Office at a seaport town for a person on board a ship expected to arrive at that port, it is kept two months.

14. Letters addressed to initials or to fictitious names at Provincial Post Offices are not taken in, but are at once sent to the Returned Letter Office.

15. All letters addressed to club houses, hotels, and other places where letters are received to be called for, should be returned to the Post Office as soon as it has become evident that they will not be called for.

16. Every letter should contain the full address of the writer, in order to ensure its return if undelivered.

17. To facilitate the delivery of letters, a letter-box should be affixed to every house-door.

18. Much trouble is saved to the office if circulars, before being posted, are tied in bundles with all the addresses in one direction. Correspondence posted early in the day not only obtains in many cases the advantage of an earlier delivery, but frequently avoids the risk of delay from irregularity in the working of the trains.

19. Any person who, on receiving a surcharged letter, has reason to think that it has been wrongly taxed, should take it, before it has been opened, to the Post Office to be weighed, and if it then appear that it does not turn the scale, should have its exact weight certified in writing. This will in most cases be sufficient evidence that the letter has been erroneously charged; though sometimes, owing to the paper being damp when it is posted, a packet weighs more then than when it is delivered; and it is the weight at the time of posting that determines the charge.

20. When complaint is made of a letter or other postal packet being lost, missent, or delayed, information, as precise as possible, regarding all the facts of the case should be furnished, together with any documents that may throw light upon the matter. The day and hour at which the letter, &c., was posted, as well as the office at which and the person by whom this was done, should always be stated; and when possible, the cover or wrapper in an entire state should be sent, in order that the place of delay may be ascertained by an examination of the stamps.

21. Neither money nor any other article of considerable value ought ever to be sent through the post, except by means of a money order or in a registered letter. Any person who sends money or jewellery in an unregistered letter, not only runs a risk of losing his property, but exposes to temptation every one through whose hands his letter passes.

22. Whenever Bank Notes are sent by post, even in registered letters, they should be cut in halves, and the second halves should not be posted till it has been ascertained that the first halves has been received; and further, in order to afford the means of identification, a memorandum should always be made of the number of each bank note.

23. Except where the Surveyor may deem a longer interval necessary, late letters,* &c., are received till within five minutes of the despatch of the mail; although no office is kept open merely for this purpose after 10 o'clock at night.

24. No late letters, &c. (except Government letters) are forwarded by the mail preparing for despatch unless prepaid, and that by stamps, including both the ordinary postage and the late letter fee. The late fee payable upon Post Cards is the same as upon letters. In the case of letters directed to any department of Government, it is sufficient to prepay the fee.

25. Letter boxes for the receipt of late letters bearing the extra stamp of ½d. are affixed to all Mail trains in which travelling post offices or sorting carriages are run.

26. Sunday.—During the time the office is open on Sunday the public are allowed to purchase postage stamps and to have letters registered (viz.) from nine to ten in the morning; but no Money Order, Savings Bank, Insurance, or Annuity business is transacted on Sunday.

27. At no provincial town in England or Ireland is there more than one delivery on Sunday, Christmas Day, or Good Friday; nor in Scotland on Sunday or the Sacramental Fast Days.

Penalties for sending Letters otherwise than through the Post.

29. Any person conveying (otherwise than by the Post) a letter not exempted from the exclusive privilege of the postmaster-general incurs, by law, a penalty of £5 for every letter, and £100 for every week the practice is continued. The sender also is liable to a penalty of £5 for every letter.

30. Exceptions.—The exclusive privilege of the postmaster-general is confined strictly to letters, and does not therefore extend to newspapers, books, or money; any of which may be legally conveyed by other means. The following kinds of letters also need not be sent through the post:—

1st. Letters sent by a private friend, to be delivered by such friend to the person to whom they shall be directed.

2nd. Letters sent by a messenger on purpose, concerning the private affairs of the sender or receiver thereof; commissions or returns thereof, and affidavits and writs, process or proceedings or returns thereof, issuing out of a court of justice.

3rd. Letters sent out of the United Kingdom by a private vessel (not being a packet boat).

* "Late Letters" are such as are posted after the ordinary time, and cannot be sent forward by the mail then in preparation, unless extra payment be made.

4th. Letters of merchants, owners of vessels of merchandise, or of the cargo or loading therein, sent by such vessels of merchandise, or by any person employed by such owners for the carriage of such letters, according to their respective directions, and delivered to the respective persons to whom they shall be directed, without paying or receiving reward or profit for the same in anywise.

5th. Letters concerning goods or merchandise sent by common carriers, to be delivered with the goods which such letters concern, without hire or other advantage for receiving or delivering such letters.

31. No person, however, is authorized to make a collection of such excepted letters for the purpose of sending them in the manner above described.

32. The following persons are expressly forbidden to carry a letter, or to receive or collect or deliver a letter, even though they shall not receive hire or reward for the same:—

1st. Common known carriers, their servants or agents, except a letter concerning goods in their carts or waggons, or on their pack horses; and owners, drivers, or guards of stage coaches.

2nd. Owners, masters, or commanders of ships, vessels, steam-boats, or boats called or being passage or packet boats, sailing or passing coastwise, or otherwise between places within Great Britain or Ireland, or between, to, or from ports within Her Majesty's dominions or territories out of the United Kingdom, or their servants or agents, except in respect of letters of merchants, owners of ships, or goods on board.

3rd. Passengers or other persons on board any such ships, vessels, steam-boats, passage or packet boat.

4th. The owners of or sailors or others on board a ship or boat passing on a river or navigable canal within the United Kingdom or other Her Majesty's dominions.

6. The same rates are chargeable in this country upon unpaid or insufficiently paid letters received from the above-named places.

7. Dimensions.— See Page 14.

11. The addresses of letters for Russia should be very plainly written; the name of the town, and of the province in which it is situated, should also be added in English, French, or German.

Foreign and Colonial Newspapers.

1. The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, to foreign countries and the colonies on newspapers registered for transmission abroad will be found in the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage.

2. The conditions of registration for transmission abroad are the same as those for inland transmission; excepting that for foreign transmission a newspaper may be published at intervals of thirty-one days. Moreover, prices current and market reports (but not private price lists or trade catalogues) may be registered as newspapers for foreign transmission, provided that they be published at intervals not exceeding thirty-one days.

3. All publications registered for transmission abroad must be posted within eight days from the day of publication, including that day; and any newspaper posted more than eight days after the date of publication, as well as any unregistered publication, must be prepaid at the book rates of postage.

4. The collected numbers issued during the month of a weekly or fortnightly publication are not allowed to pass as a monthly publication.

5. Newspaper, whether posted in covers or without covers, must not be fastened so as to prevent easy withdrawal for examination.

6. Every newspaper must be so folded as to admit of the title being readily inspected.

7. No newspaper, whether posted singly or in a packet, may contain any enclosure except the supplement or supplements belonging to it.

8. There must be no writing or other marks on a newspaper sent abroad but the name and address of the person to whom it is sent; nor anything on the cover but such name and address, the printed title of the publication, the printed name and address of the publisher or vendor who sends it, and words indicating the date on which the subscription to the newspaper will end.

9. No packet of newspapers may exceed two feet in length or one foot in width or depth. The limit of weight, which is not the same to all countries, is stated in the heading of the Table of Colonial and Foreign Postage.

Foreign and Colonial Book Post.

1. Articles which may be sent to places abroad under the Book Post Regulations consist of two classes, as follows:—

1st. Commercial Papers, under which are comprised all papers or documents written or drawn wholly or partly by hand (except letters or communications in the nature of letters, or other papers or documents having the character of an actual and personal correspondence), documents of legal procedure, Deeds drawn up by public functionaries, copies of, or extracts from Deeds under private seal (and whether written or printed on stamped or unstamped paper), Way Bills, Bills of Lading, Invoices, and other documents of a mercantile character, documents of Insurance and other public Companies, all kinds of manuscript Music, the manuscript of Books and other literary works, and other papers of a similar description.

2nd. Printed Papers, including periodical works, books (stitched or bound), pamphlets, sheets of music (printed), visiting cards, address cards, proofs of printing (with or without the manuscript relating thereto), engravings, photographs (when not on glass or in frames containing glass), drawings, plans, maps, catalogues, prospectuses, announcements, and notices of various kinds, whether printed, engraved, or lithographed, and in general all impressions or copies obtained upon paper, parchment, or card-board by means of printing, lithographing, or any other mechanical process easy to recognise, except the copying press, and anything usually attached or appurtenant to any of the before-mentioned articles in the way of binding, mounting, or otherwise, and anything convenient for their safe transmission by post which, shall be contained in the same packet; also printed, engraved, or lithographed circulars, notwithstanding that such circulars may be letters or communications in the nature of a letter.

The two classes are subject to the same rates of postage, except that when addressed to countries in the Postal Union, the initial rate for commercial papers is higher than that for printed papers. If there be any mixture of the two in the same packet the whole packet is treated as commercial papers.

2. Every packet must be posted either without a cover (in which case it must not be fastened, whether by means of gum, wafer, sealing wax, postage stamp, or otherwise), or in an open cover, so as to admit of the contents being easily withdrawn for examination; otherwise it is treated as a letter. For the greater security of the contents, however, it may be tied at the ends with string, postmasters being authorized to cut the string in such cases, although, if they do so, they must again tie up the packet.

3. Dimensions.—The limit of size for a packet addressed to any place abroad is 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth. For limit of weight see heading of the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage.

4. Rates of Postage.—The rates of Postage, which must be prepaid on packets to places abroad, are given in the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage.

The following information respecting books and photographs for the United States has been received from the Post Office at Washington:—"The only books absolutely free from Customs duty, under the United States laws, are those which have been printed more than twenty years; and pamphlets, periodicals, and other like publications, for the personal use of the individual to whom they are addressed. Nevertheless any book valued at not more than one dollar is also considered as exempt from Customs duty; and so are photographs, when sent in limited numbers, for the private use of the person to whom they are addressed, or for distribution to relatives or friends."

Foreign and Colonial Pattern and Sample Post.

1. There is a Pattern and Sample Post to foreign countries and the colonies generally; but it is restricted to bonâ fide trade patterns or samples of merchandise. Goods sent for sale, or in execution of an order (however small the quantity may be), or any articles sent by one private individual to another which are not actually patterns or samples, are not admissible.

2. No article liable to Custom duties can be sent as a sample or pattern.

3. The rates of postage, which must be prepaid, will be found in the Tables of Foreign Postage.

4. Patterns or samples, when practicable, must be sent in covers open at the ends, and in such a manner as to be easy of examination.* But samples of seeds, drugs, and such like articles, which cannot be sent in covers of this kind, may be posted enclosed in boxes, or in bags of linen or other material, fastened in such a manner that they may be readily opened.

5. There must be no writing or printing upon or in any packet except the address of the person for whom it is intended, the address of the sender, a trade mark or number, and the price of the articles. But a packet for any country in the Postal Union may have enclosed in it any of the articles designated as "Commercial Papers" if the rate applicable to Commercial Papers be paid for the whole packet.

6. Samples of saleable value must not be sent to any foreign country, or to any of the British Possessions which are comprised in the Postal Union. Samples of eider down, raw or thread silk, woollen or goats' hair thread, vanilla, saffron, carmine, or isinglass, are considered to fall under this rule if they weigh more than three ounces.

7. Such articles as scissors, knives, razors, forks, steel pens, nails, keys, watch machinery, metal tubing, pieces of metal or ore, provided that they be packed and guarded in so secure a manner as to afford complete protection to the contents of the mail bags and to the Officers of the Post Office, while at the same time they may be easily examined, may be sent as samples to places abroad. Liquids, indigo, and powders of all kinds are absolutely prohibited.

8. The limit of weight is not the same to all countries. For particulars, see heading of the Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage.

9. A packet of patterns or samples sent to any place comprised in the Postal Union (except Belgium, France, Greece, Luxemburg, Portugal, Switzerland via France, and the United States), must not exceed 8 inches in length, 4 inches in width, or 2 inches in depth. The limit to Belgium, France, Greece, Luxemburg, Portugal, Switzerland via France, or the United States is 12 inches in length, 8 inches in width, and 4 inches in depth. The size of a packet for a non-Union country or colony is limited to 24 inches in length and 12 inches in width or depth.

* In order to secure the return of Pattern Packets which cannot be delivered, the names and addresses of the senders should be printed or written outside; thus, "From———— of ————."

Foreign Post Cards.

Post Cards for abroad may be sent to all the countries comprised in the Postal Union.

Post Cards for abroad with impressed stamps of ½d., 1½d., and 2d. each are sold at those rates, and are transmissible to all the countries of the Union without extra charge, but reference should be made to column E of the Tables of Foreign and Colonial Postage for the particular rate to each country.

Reply Post Cards for certain places abroad are also issued with impressed stamps of 2d., 3d., and 4d. respectively; for list of countries to which they can be forwarded see end of Table of Foreign and Colonial Postage.

The regulations relating to Inland Post Cards apply also to Cards posted for places abroad, except that the latter, when these regulations are infringed, are not sent on at all.

Letters for Non-Commissioned Officers, Soldiers, and Seamen in Her Majesty's Service.

1. Non-commissioned officers, bandmasters, schoolmasters, schoolmistresses, private soldiers, seamen, writers in Her Majesty's Army or Navy, whether serving on sea or land, in a British Possession or Foreign Country, as also enrolled pensioners in Canada, the Cape Mounted Rifles, and the Cape Field Artillery, or the Cape Infantry Regiment, can send and receive letters not exceeding the weight of half an ounce for a postage of 1d.; but if any such letters have to pass through a foreign country they are subject, in addition, to the foreign postage, whatever that may be. Thus the postage to the undermentioned countries (including the British charge of one penny) is as follows:—

To or from—	s.	d.
Australia, Ceylon,* Hong Kong,* India,* &c., viâ Brindisi . .	0	2
Mauritius, by French Packet . .	0	3
Chili, Peru, or any other place in the South Pacific, viâ Southampton and Panama	0	2
Bahamas and Bermuda, viâ New York	0	2

2. The Person claiming the privilege must at the time be actually employed in the service of Her Majesty, and must not be either a commissioned officer or warrant officer, viz., a conductor in the army, or assistant engineer, gunner, boatswain, or carpenter in the navy; the privilege not extending to these officers.

3. If the letter be posted within the United Kingdom, the penny must be prepaid, as must any foreign postage that may be chargeable. If posted abroad, prepayment is not compulsory, but if the letter be sent unpaid, it is on delivery charged twopence, together with any foreign postage that may be due.

4. The name of the soldier or seaman, with his class or description, must appear in the direction; and the officer having the command must sign his name, and specify the ship or regiment, corps or detachment, to which the soldier or seaman belongs; the name of the ship or regiment being entered in full. The foregoing particulars must be given in one of the following forms:—

Seamen.

C.D., Captain (or other Commanding Officer),

(Here the direction to be finished.)

5. If the letter be posted in the United Kingdom for a place abroad, unpaid or insufficiently paid, or if the class or description of the soldier or seaman be not written in the address, it will be detained and returned to the writer for payment of the postage.

Letters, &c, by Private Ships.

1. Letters intended to be sent by a private ship must be addressed "By Private Ship," and if by a particular vessel the name of the ship must be added. The postage of a letter by a Private Ship is as follows:—

Country.	For a prepaid letter.	Fine on letters not wholly prepaid.
	Per ½ oz.
* Ascension, . . .	6d.	...
*Australia, . . .	6d.	...
Cape Colony, . .	6d.	6d. each.
Ceylon, Hong Kong, India, Straits Settlements, .	4d.	4d. each.
Natal, ...	6d.	6d. each.
St. Helena, . . .	4d.	Double the deficiency.
Countries comprised in the Postal Union, except Ceylon, Hong Kong, India, Straits Settlements, . . .	Same as by Mail Packet.	...
* All other Countries, .	6d.	...

2. Letters cannot be sent unpaid to the Countries marked thus (*). The postage for letters weighing more than ½ oz. advances in the same manner as that for letters sent by mail packets. Unpaid letters coming into this country are charged the same rates as unpaid letters going out of it.

3. Book Packets and Packets of Patterns may be sent by Private Ship for the same postage as by Mail Packets.

4. Newspapers by Private Ships must be prepaid 1d. each per 4 ozs.

Letters for Passengers on Board Mail Packets.

1. Letters for passengers on board the packets for America touching at Queenstown, or on board the Mediterranean packets about to sail from Brindisi with the mails for India, Australia, China, &c., may be posted in any part of the United Kingdom up to the time at which ordinary registered letters to go by the same packets are received. They must be registered, and the postage and registration fee must be fully prepaid, and they must be addressed to "the care of the Commander of the packet."

* The Postage to these countries, if posted in time to leave London on Thursday morning, is 1d. only.

2. Letters for passengers on board the Canadian packets touching at Londonderry, may, under similar conditions, be posted up to the same time as ordinary registered letters for Canada. These must be addressed to "the care of the officer in charge of the Mails,"

3. The letters should be addressed thus: "Mr. ———, on board the mail packet for ———, at Queenstown [Londonderry or Brindisi], care of the Officer in charge of the mails," or "care of the Commander of the packet;" as the case may be.

4. Letters directed Post Restante, Snez, and despatched by the mail "via Brindisi," will probably reach passengers for India, &c., who have sailed in the packet which left Gravesend the previous week.

Registration.

1. The fee chargeable for registration to places abroad will be found in the column headed "Registration fee" in the Table of Foreign and Colonial postage. To some countries, as shown in that Table, an article can be registered only to the port of arrival; it being left, in those cases, to the postal authorities of the country to which that port belongs to continue the registration or not as they may think proper. To a few countries, as also shown in the Table, there is no arrangement whatever for registration.

2. Registration is applicable equally to letters, newspapers, book-packets, and patterns addressed to places abroad, except in the cases specially mentioned in the tables of Colonial and Foreign postage.

3. The sender of a registered article addressed to any Foreign Country or British Colony in the Postal Union may obtain an acknowledgment of its due receipt by the addressee on paying a fee of 2½d., as well as the registration fee, in advance at the time of registration.

4. No article addressed to initials or to a fictitious name can be registered. The prohibition, however, does not extend to articles addressed to the care of a person or firm.

5. Every article presented for registration must be enclosed in a strong envelope, securely fastened.

6. It is prohibited to send to a country of the Postal Union any registered article marked on the outside with the declared value of the contents; and Postmasters must therefore refuse to receive articles which are so marked.

7. Registered articles must be prepaid as regards both postage and registration fee.

8. Every article to be registered must be given to an agent of the Post Office, and a receipt obtained for it; and it should on no account be dropped into a letter box.

9. As it is prohibited to send coin, jewellery, or precious articles through the post to countries of the Postal Union, no letters or packets addressed to those countries and containing any such articles can be accepted for registration. This regulation, however, does not apply to Malta or Gibraltar.

10. Letters or packets containing coin for any of the British Colonies not in the Postal Union can be registered, and if they are posted without being registered, they are treated in the same manner as inland letters under similar circumstances.

Prohibited articles besides those mentioned at page 10.—In all countries of the Postal Union—coin, jewellery, precious and dutiable articles. Special additions in Italy and United States of America—anything relating to foreign lotteries. In Costa Rica—coin, jewellery, watches, precious and dutiable articles. In the Cape of Good Hope and Queensland—jewellery and precious articles, if dutiable, are liable to detention until the duty is paid. In Victoria—jewellery, being dutiable, is liable to confiscation.

Re-direction.

1. Letters, &c., sent to or received from a country of the Postal Union, and afterwards re-directed to any place in the United Kingdom, or to another country within the Union, are not liable to any additional charge, nor, if registered, to an additional fee for registration; such, however, as have been in the first instance addressed to a place in the country where they were posted, are chargeable on re-direction with the same postage, less the sum prepaid, which would have been charged had they been addressed in the first instance to the place of their ultimate delivery, but, if registered, without additional fee.

2. Letters, &c., addressed from one part of the United Kingdom to another, and then re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional Foreign or Colonial rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee for registration.

3. Letters, &c., received here from a country not in the Postal Union, and re-directed to another country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional Foreign or Colonial rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee: if re-directed to some place within the United Kingdom, they are liable to an additional inland rate; and, if re-directed to any country of the Postal Union, they are liable to the rate of that country. In the two latter cases letters, if registered, are not liable to any additional fee.

4. Letters, &c., received from any country of the Postal Union, and re-directed to a country not in the Postal Union, are liable to an additional Foreign or Colonial rate, and, if registered, to an additional fee.

5. No charge for re-direction is made on newspapers from any place abroad unless they have been opened, in which case they are liable to postage as books.

Parcel Post to India, Ceylon, and the Straits Settlements.

The Indian Parcel Post is not connected with the British Post Office; but is an arrangement between the Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company on the one hand, and the Post Office Departments of India, Ceylon, and the Straits Settlements on the other.

The Company's Circular on the subject is to the following effect:—

The Peninsular and Oriental Steam Navigation Company are authorised to receive Parcels for delivery at any Post town or district throughout India Ceylon, and British Burmah, at a uniform rate of 1s. per lb., or fraction of a lb. weight, and in the Straits Settlements (Penang, Singapore, Malacca, and Wellesley), at the rate of 1s. 4d. per lb. or fraction of a lb.

This charge covers the conveyance from London to the address in India, &c, (but does not include Duty), and may either be prepaid or paid on delivery.

Parcels intended for this conveyance must be sent either to the Company's Office, 122 Leadenhall Street, E.C., or to their Branch Office, 25 Cockspur Street, S.W., London, by noon, Monday, in each week, legibly addressed to their destination in India, &c., marked, "To be forwarded by Indian Parcel Post." If sent to the Company's Office by post or other conveyance, the address in India, &c., must be put on an inner cover. In all cases they must be accompanied by a letter of advice to the Company, stating name and address of parcel, and value and contents, for Custom House clearance; and also distinctly stating whether carriage is to be prepaid or not. Should more than one parcel be forwarded, a separate advice must be sent for each, and the contents and value of each declared. If prepayment is required, a Cheque or P.O. order for the amount must be enclosed in the letter, payable to Mr. A. M. Bethune, Secretary, or when sent to Cockspur Street, to Mr. F. H. Firth, Agent. Particular attention is requested to these regulations in order to save any delay in the despatch of Parcels.

Parcels conveyed under these regulations must not exceed 50 lbs. in weight, and 2 feet by 1 foot by 1 foot in measurement, nor be more than £50 value. Jewellery, gold, and silver ware, watches or precious stones, are charged an additional ad valorem rate of 1s. on every £5, or fraction of £5, which must be prepaid. They should be entirely closed, and any articles liable to suffer from crushing must be in a strong wooden case not less than half-inch thick (tin lining optional). Parcels not in wood must have an outer covering of stout canvas if measuring one cubic foot and upwards.

Senders of Parcels from the Country will receive a receipt for them from the Company in due course, and if required the Company will effect Insurance against Sea and Land risks. The charge for Insurance, which must in all cases be prepaid, will be at the rate of 1s. for every £5 or fraction of £5 value on each parcel.

Parcels of a fragile nature, or containing liquids, or articles of a dangerous or damaging nature, will not be received.

Reduced Rates for Books.—The Company are also authorized to receive Book packets for conveyance from London to India, Aden, Ceylon, and British Burmah, at the rate 6d. per lb. or fraction of a lb., for which a separate advice must be sent. If any other article is found enclosed in the Book packet when examined by the Customs at Bombay, an extra rate of 2s. per lb. on the package will be charged to the addressee. No letter must, under any circumstances, be enclosed in these parcels.

If a receipt is required, a stamped and directed envelope must be enclosed in the Advice.

If no Advice accompanies the Parcel, it will be liable to be charged at the 1s. rate.

Remittances from the country must be by cheque, post office order, or penny stamps. Stamps of a higher denomination cannot be received, and they must not be defaced or affixed to the parcel.

MONEY ORDERS.

1. When applying for Money Orders, whether Inland, Foreign, or Colonial, the public should use the prepared printed "Application Forms," which are supplied gratuitously at all Money Order Offices.

2. Commission.—The commission on Inland Money Orders is:—

For sums under 10s.,			-	2d.
Of 10s. and under £2,			-	3d.
" £2,	"	3,	-	4d.
" 3,	"	4,	-	5d.
" 4,	"	5,	-	6d.
" 5,	"	6,	-	7d.
" 6,	"	7,	-	8d.
" 7,	"	8,	-	9d.
" 8,	"	9,	-	10d.
" 9,	"	10,	-	11d.
£10 Orders,	-	-	-	1s.

3. No order is allowed to contain a fractional part of a penny.

4. Particulars Required.—No Money Order can be issued unless the applicant furnish in full the surname and at least the initial of one Christian name, both of the remitter and the payee, together with the remitter's address. In the case of Foreign Orders the full address of the payee must be given; and if the order be payable to a native in British India the tribe or caste, and the father's name, must also be furnished.

Exceptions.—1st. The remitter is at liberty to desire at the time of issue that the order be crossed like a cheque, thus & Co., and be made payable only through a Bank, in which case it is left to his option to give or withhold the name of the payee. The designation of the Bank need not be furnished. Foreign and Colonial Money Orders do not come under this exception.

2nd. If the remitter or payee be a peer or a bishop, his ordinary title is sufficient.

3rd. The usual designation of a firm is sufficient, except in the case of a company trading under a title which does not consist of the name of the persons composing it, as the "Carron Company," but even a designation of this nature may be accepted, provided the order be crossed for presentation for payment through a bank.

5. The holder of a Money Order is always at liberty to direct, by crossing it, that the order be paid through a bank (unless such Order is payable abroad), even though its payment was not originally so restricted.

6. When application is made for a Money Order payable in London, or at any other town where there is more than one Money Order Office, the remitter should say at which of such offices he wishes it to be paid, otherwise the order can be cashed only at the Head Office.

7. Orders cannot be Cancelled.—An order once issued cannot be cancelled; and should repayment or transfer to a different office be required, the remitter or payee must apply to the paying Postmaster according to the directions in paragraph 15 of these regulations.

8. Money Orders do not require a receipt stamp.

9. When an Order is paid through a bank it is sufficient that it be receipted, without regard to any discrepancy between the signature and the name in the advice, and that it be crossed with the name of the bank, and presented by some person known to be in the employment of that bank.

10. Although at the end of twelve months from that in which it was issued, a Money Order, if still unpaid, becomes legally void, nevertheless, when a good reason can be given for the delay in presenting it, an application for payment, subject to a certain deduction, is entertained.

11. No application can be entertained for compensation for alleged injury from the non-payment of a Money Order at the expected time.

12. After once paying a Money Order, by whomsoever presented, the Office is not liable to any further claim.

13. To guard against fraudulent payment of a Money Order the remitter is recommended:—

1st. When he is well known to the payee, to sign the letter enclosing the order with his initials only.

2nd. When this is not the case, either to make the order payable ten days after date, or to register the letter enclosing it, or to make the order payable through a bank by crossing it like an ordinary cheque.

3rd. When it is not considered expedient to adopt any of these courses, to send the remitter's name (without a knowledge of which payment cannot be obtained) in a separate letter from that containing the Money Order; although this latter precaution is much less effective than either of the others.

14. Payment of an order cannot be demanded on the same day as that on which the order was issued.

15. In case of the miscarriage or loss of an inland Money Order in transmission through the post, a duplicate will be granted, free of charge, on a written application (with the necessary particulars) being forwarded to the Comptroller of the Money Order Office in England, Scotland, or Ireland, according to the country in which the original order was issued. Should an Order be lost by the remitter or payee an additional commission, which should be forwarded in postage stamps together with the application for a duplicate order, will be charged. This additional commission, for duplicate of an order not exceeding £5, will be 1s.; above £5 and not exceeding £10, 2s. If it be desired to stop payment of an inland order, application must be made at the office where the order is payable, and a second commission must be paid. If alteration in the name of the payee or remitter of an inland Money Order should be required, application, accompanied by the payment of a second commission, must be made by the remitter to the Postmaster of the office at which the order was issued. Should transfer of payment of an inland order from one office to another in the United Kingdom, or repayment of the amount of an order, be required, an application inclosing the order must be made to the Postmaster at whose office the order is payable; who will transmit in exchange a new order payable at the place desired, but for a less sum than the original order by the amount of the second commission charged for the reissue. Proper printed forms for making application in all these cases may be obtained at any Money Order Office. Whenever, on complaint being made, it is found that the necessity for an application, entailing the payment of a fresh commission, is attributable to the Post Office, the charge will be remitted to the applicant and imposed on the officer in fault.

16. A Postmaster is required to give information how to apply for a duplicate order, &c., and must furnish the prescribed form of application. If payment of an order be refused, in consequence of the reply to the question respecting the remitter, or the signature on the order not corresponding with the entries on the advice, the applicant for payment should communicate with the remitter, and request him to apply personally to the issuing Postmaster.

17. No Letter Carrier, Rural Messenger, or other Servant of the Post Office is bound to procure a Money Order for any person, or to obtain payment for one; but such services are not forbidden.

18. Money Orders are issued in the United Kingdom on the following foreign countries, British agencies, possessions, and colonies, at the rates of commission shown below:— Foreign Countries—Belgium, Denmark, Egypt, France, German Empire, Holland, Italy, Japan, Norway, Portugal, Sweden, Switzerland, Danish West Indies, Dutch East Indian Possessions, United States, for sums not exceeding £2, 6d.; £5, 1s.; £7, 1s. 6d.; £10, 2s. British Agencies—Gibraltar, Malta, Constantinople, Smyrna, Panama, for sums not exceeding £2, 6d.; £5, 1s.; £7, 1s. 6d.; £10, 2s. British Possessions and Colonies—Aden, Belize, British Columbia, British Guiana, Cape of Good Hope, Canada, Ceylon, Cyprus, Falkland Islands, Gambia, Gold Coast, Hong Kong (with an agency at Shanghai), India (including agencies at Bagdad, Bandor Abas, Bushire, Busrah, Guadur, Jask, Linga, Muscat, and Zanzibar), Lagos, Mauritius, Natal, New Brunswick, Newfoundland, New South Wales, New Zealand, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Island, Queensland, St. Helena, Seychelle Islands, Sierra Leone, South Australia, Straits Settlements, Tasmania, Victoria, West Indies, Western Australia, Heligoland, for sums not exceeding £2, 6d.; £5, 1s.; £7, 1s. 6d.; £10, 2s.

19. In the case of Denmark, Danish West Indies, Egypt, Germany and Heligoland, Holland, Dutch East Indies, Norway, Portugal, Sweden, Switzerland, and India, the original Order, issued in this country, should be retained by the remitter, a new Order in the currency of the country of payment being issued by the Chief Office of that country, and sent to the payee.

In the case of Belgium, France, Italy, the United States and Canada, the Order issued in this country should be sent to the payee by the remitter.

In like manner, the Orders issued in Belgium, Denmark, Danish West Indies, Egypt, Germany and Heligoland, Holland, Dutch East Indies, Italy, Norway, Portugal, Sweden, Switzerland, and India, are of no value in this country, and should, therefore, be retained by the remitters.

Orders, issued in France and Algeria, the United States and Canada, should be sent to the payees by the remitters.

20. The issue of a duplicate Order, or the stoppage of payment of an Order issued by a Colony or Foreign Country on the United Kingdom, will be made on application to the Controller of the Chief Money Order Office, London, provided an additional commission be enclosed as follows:—1. For duplicates of Orders, not exceeding £5, 1s.; above £5, and not exceeding £10, 2s. 2. For stoppage of payment, an additional commission at the ordinary Inland Rates. Postmasters in the United Kingdom have power to transfer to other Offices in the United Kingdom payment of colonial and foreign orders originally drawn on their own offices.

21. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on Belgium, Denmark, Danish West Indies, Italy, France, Japan, Portugal, Sweden, United States, Switzerland,

Holland, the Dutch East Indian Possessions, Norway, Egypt, and the British colonies, are payable for twelve months after the month of issue. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on the German Empire and India, are subject to the regulations which govern the payment of money orders in those countries.

22. Orders issued in the United Kingdom on the Island of Heligoland are subject to the same rules as those issued in the United Kingdom upon the German Empire.

23. Amounts of Money orders, issued in the United Kingdom on India, are paid in rupees, annas, and pies; the rupee being the standard of value in India. As, however, the value of the rupee is subject to constant variation, no tables of conversion can be given.

POSTAL ORDERS.

1. Postal Orders, for certain fixed sums from 1s. up to £1, are now issued to the public at all Post Offices at which Money Order business is transacted, and at Malta and Gibraltar.

2. The following are the amounts for which Postal Orders are issued, together with the Poundage payable in respect of each Order:—

Amount of Order.	Poundage.	Amount of Order.	Poundage.
s. d.	d.	s. d.	d.
1 0	½	10 0	2
1 6	½	12 6	2
2 6	1	15 0	2
5 0	1	17 6	2
7 6	1	20 0	2

3. The person to whom a Postal Order is issued must, before parting with it, fill in the name of the person to whom the amount is to be paid, and may fill in the name of the Money Order Office at which the amount is to be paid. The person so named must, before payment can be made, sign the receipt at the foot of the Order, and must also fill in the name of the Money Order Office, if that has not been already done.

4. Every person to whom a Postal Order is issued should keep a record of the number, date, and name of office of issue to facilitate enquiry if the order should be lost.

5. If a Postal Order be crossed "_____ & Co." payment will only be made through a Banker, and if the name of a Banker is added, payment will only be made through that Banker.

6. A Postal Order presented by, or through, a Banker for payment will not (in the absence of an express arrangement between such Banker and the Postmaster-General to the contrary) be paid until after such Order has been examined at the Chief Office.

7. After a Postal Order has once been paid, to whomsoever it is paid, the Postmaster-General will not be liable for any further claim.

8. If any erasure or alteration be made, or if the Order is cut, defaced, or mutilated, payment may be refused.

9. The regulations under which Postal Orders are issued allow the Postmaster to delay or refuse the payment of an Order, but he must at once report his reasons for so doing to the Postmaster-General.

10. After the expiration of three months from the last day of the month of issue, a Postal Order will be payable only on payment of a Commission equal to the amount of the original poundage, with the addition (if more than three months have elapsed since the said expiration) of the amount of the original poundage for every further period of three months which has so elapsed, and for every portion of any such period of three months over and above every complete period.

11. The Commission thus paid must be affixed in Postage Stamps to the face of the Order.

12. After the closing of the Money Order Office, Postal Orders may be obtained at the stamp counter, Head Office, George Square, until 10 p.m. on week days.

POST OFFICE SAVINGS BANKS.

1. Post Office Savings Banks are established at all Money Order Offices in the United Kingdom, and are open for the receipt and payment of money and for the transaction of Government Stock business daily during the hours appointed for Money Order business.

2. At these Banks deposits of one shilling, or any number of shillings, will be received; but no one may deposit more than £30 in one year ending 31st December, or make a further deposit when the total amount standing to his credit has reached £150, exclusive of interest. (The limits of £30 and £150 are irrespective of any sums deposited for the purpose of immediate investment in Government Stock.)

Any person desirous of saving one shilling by means of penny contributions, for deposit in the Post Office Savings Bank, may do so by purchasing with every penny so saved a penny postage stamp, and affixing it to a form to be obtained at any Post Office. Instructions as to this form are printed thereon.

3. Interest.—Interest at the rate of £2 10s. per cent. per annum (which is at the rate of 6d. in the pound for each year, or at the rate of one halfpenny on each complete pound for each month), is allowed until the sum due to a depositor amounts to £200, when interest ceases to be allowed. The calculation is made from the first day of the calendar month next following the day on which a complete pound has been deposited or completed, up to the last day of the calendar month preceding the day on which a warrant for repayment is issued. The interest due to each depositor is added to the principal due to him on the 31st December in each year.

4. Transfers of Deposits.—Any person may transfer his deposits from a Trustee Savings Bank to the Post Office Savings Bank, or vice versâ, by obtaining a certificate of transfer, which will be accepted as a deposit of the amount therein set forth. Forms of application for certificates of transfer to a Trustee Savings Bank can be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

5. Withdrawal of Deposits.—Any depositor wishing to withdraw the whole or part of the sum deposited by him, must make application for the same to the General Post Office in London, in a form which may be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank.

6. Repayments.—Repayments will be made only to the depositor in person, or to the bearer of an order under his hand, signed in the presence of either the minister of the parish in which the depositor resides, of a justice of the peace, or in case of sickness, of the medical attendant.

7. Secrecy.—The Officers of the Postmaster-General engaged in the receipt or payment of deposits are not allowed to disclose the name of any depositor, or the amount deposited or withdrawn by him, except to the Postmaster-General, or to such of his officers as may be appointed to assist in carrying out the provisions of the Post Office Savings Bank Acts.

INVESTMENTS AND SALES OF GOVERNMENT STOCK UNDER THE SAVINGS BANKS ACT, 1880.

10. A depositor in the Post Office Savings Bank who desires either to invest a certain sum (not being less than £10) in Government Stock, or to purchase a certain amount of Government Stock (not being less than £10 Stock), must send to the Controller of the Savings Bank Department, General Post Office, London, together with his deposit book, an application signed by him on a form to be obtained at any Post Office Savings Bank. By the expression "Government Stock" is meant Consolidated Three per Cent. Bank Annuities, Reduced Three per Cent. Bank Annuities, and New Three per Cent. Bank Annuities.

11. The sum invested must not be less than £10, or the amount of the current price of £10 Stock with the addition of the commission, whichever sum is least. The amount of Stock credited to any one account in any year ending the 31st December (whether any Stock has been previously sold or not) must not exceed £100 Stock; and the whole amount of Stock credited to any one account must not exceed £300 Stock.

12. The commission chargeable on investment, including the receipt of dividends, and on the sale of Stock, is as follows:—

GOVERNMENT INSURANCES AND ANNUITIES.

The Postmaster-General is empowered under the Act 27 and 28 Vict. cap. 43, to insure the lives of persons of either sex between the ages of 16 and 60, for not less than £20 or more than £100. He is also empowered under the same Act to grant immediate or deferred annuities of not more than £50 on the lives of persons of either sex, and of the age of ten years and upwards.

The persons whose lives are insured or to whom annuities are granted by the Postmaster-General, have direct Government security for the payment of the money at the proper time.

The Post Office of Glasgow receives proposals for the insurance of lives and the purchase of annuities; and forms of proposal, with full instructions for filling up and delivering the same, as well as every other necessary information, may be obtained on application.

POST OFFICE TELEGRAPHS.

1. The charge for telegrams throughout the United Kingdom is 1s. for the first 20 words, and 3d. for every additional five words, or part of five words; the names and addresses of the sender and receiver are not counted.

2. The charges for Press telegrams are 1s. for every 100 words, or portion of 100 words, handed in between the hours of 6 P.M. and 9 A.M., and 1s. for every 75 words, or portion of 75 words, handed in between the hours of 9 A.M. and 6 P.M., with an additional charge of 2d. per 100, or 2d. per 75 words, as the case may be, for every additional address.

3. Postage stamps are used for the payment of telegrams, and the public are required to affix the stamps to the message forms just as they are required to affix them to letters.

4. Receipts for the charges on telegrams can be obtained at a cost of 2d. each.

5. The inland telegram forms are of two kinds, namely, the "A 1" form, embossed with a stamp of the value of 1s., and the "A" form (given gratis), with no stamp. The "A 1 forms" may be purchased singly. They may also be had in books of 20 forms, interleaved, and with a sheet of carbonic paper, price 20s. 2d. per book.

6. When the terminal office, i.e., the office situated nearest to the address, is a Head Post Office, the amount paid for transmission covers the cost of delivery within one mile, or within the town postal delivery of that office when the delivery extends more than a mile. But when it is not a Head Post Office, the message is delivered free within a limit of one mile only.

7. When the addressee resides beyond the free delivery, porterage is charged at the rate of 6d. per mile, or part thereof, provided the whole distance does not exceed three miles; but the charge is calculated from the boundary of the district within which no porterage is levied. For instance, if the addressee's residence is a mile and a quarter from the terminal office, and also beyond the town postal delivery, the charge for porterage would be 6d.; if the distance is above two miles and under three, 1s.

8. If the addressee resides at a greater distance than three miles from the terminal office, porterage is charged for delivery by mounted messenger at the rate of 1s. per mile, except in Ireland, where the charge usually is 8d. per mile. The charge being reckoned from the Office door.

9. If the sender requires his telegram to be forwarded by post or by train from the terminal office, he must write the words "by post" or "by train" at the end of the address, and in the latter case he must pay the cost or deposit 1s. if the exact cost is not known.

10. A deposit of 5s. is required upon all telegrams addressed to persons on board ship (unless the ship be lying along side a wharf, jetty, or pier) to cover any expense incurred in their delivery; any surplus is refunded in the course of a few days.

11. An embossed stamp which has been removed from a spoiled and unused "A 1" form will be accepted in payment of a telegram; but mutilated or defaced stamps will not.

12. The sender should avoid all words not strictly necessary in his address. He is not obliged to have his address telegraphed, but he should furnish it to enable the Department to communicate with him, if necessary. When the address is not to be telegraphed, it should be written at the foot or on the back of the form.

13. Telegrams can be repeated at the request of the sender, if he desires to adopt this security against risk of error, by being signalled back from each office at which they are received to the office from which they are forwarded. No copy of the telegram is, in such case, given to the sender. The charge for repetition is one half the ordinary tariff; fractions of threepence being reckoned as twopence.

14. The cost of a reply not exceeding forty words in length may be prepaid; and a reply form will then be delivered to the addressee, who will be at liberty to send his reply, from any Telegraph Office, at any time within two months after the date of the original telegram. If the form be not used application for the return of the money, accompanied by the form, may be made by the holder to the secretary, General Post Office, London. A reply form, however, need not necessarily be used for the reply to a message, but may be used for the purpose of prepaying a message containing the same number of words as that named on it.

15. Telegrams re-transmitted to a second address by wire or pneumatic tube are liable to additional charge at the ordinary Inland rate. No charge is made for the second service, if the re-direction does not involve any use of the wires or tubes. In addition to the amount chargeable on each re-transmitted telegram, a fee of £1 1s. per annum is charged for the registration of special instructions as to the re-direction of telegrams after office hours. Removals are registered, when this is specially requested, for a period of one month; and no charge is made for the registration.

16. Persons who wish to avoid sending to a telegraph office, may, without additional charge, post a telegram form inclosed in an envelope, addressed "Telegram Immediate," in a wall or pillar box, or in the letter-box of a Receiving Office or Sub-Post Office. Telegrams so posted are sent on by the next collection to the nearest Telegraph Office, are thence transmitted by wire, and are delivered free of extra charge, provided the proper amounts for the number of words contained in them, and for porterage when they have to be delivered beyond the limits of the free delivery, have been prepaid. The period of arrival at the Telegraph Office is regarded as the time of receipt from the public.

17. Telegrams may also be posted not enclosed in envelopes, and when so posted they will be treated in the same manner as those enclosed in envelopes. Unpaid telegrams are not forwarded.

18. Most of the Telegraph Offices in the United Kingdom are closed between 8 p.m. and 8 a.m.; and as time is required for transmission between office and office, a telegram if it be deposited in a box at such a time that it cannot reach a Telegraph Office before 7 p.m., may not reach its destination until after 8 a.m. on the following day. Postmasters may accept telegrams after the usual hours on payment of certain fees, provided that the terminal office is open, or, that the attention of that office can be gained.

19. Telegrams may be handed to rural letter-carriers on their way to telegraph offices.

20. Numbers expressed in figures are counted as so many words, according to the number of figures employed. For example, "7" counts as one word, "12" as two words, "385" as three words; and so on. Fractions are counted according to the number of figures employed to express the quantity, one word being added for the bar or mark of division between the numerator and denominator—thus "$\frac{1}{2}$" counts as three words, "$\frac{3}{4}$" as three words, "$109\frac{7}{8}$" as six words. In groups of figures intended to express time, any bar or stop is counted as one word; thus, "12-35" counts as five words. Ordinal numbers are charged in the same way as cardinal numbers, with the addition of one word for the affix st, rd, or th, as the case may be.

21. When the sender of a telegram desires that special instructions, such as "private," "confidential," "to be opened at once," or the like, shall be written on the envelope of the message, he must write the instructions immediately after the address of the receiver. The instructions are charged for as part of the message.

22. When telegrams are addressed to a Telegraph Office to be called for, they are kept for two clear days; and if no application be made for them within that time, are sent to the Chief Office, London.

23. Telegrams for the re-direction of letters are accepted at the ordinary rate of charge; but the sender must append his signature to the telegram, otherwise it cannot be acted upon.

24. Telegrams which are indecently or obscenely worded, or which appear to contain libellous or grossly offensive matter, will not be transmitted.

25. The Department is not liable for losses incurred through the incorrect transmission, delay, or non-delivery of telegrams.

26. Telegraph offices are, as a rule, open from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. on week days, and from 8 a.m. to 10 a.m. on Sundays. There are, however, offices in several of the larger towns which are open for longer periods. At the following offices in London and in the country there is attendance continuously during the day and night, both on week days and Sundays.

The Weather, and Forecasts of the Weather.

The latest information as to the weather in any district of the United Kingdom, and forecasts of the weather one day in advance in any district not bordering on the Atlantic, can be obtained by telegraph from the Meteorological Office on payment of a fee of 1s. in addition to the cost of a telegram and reply.

An application for such information addressed to the Meteorological Office, London, may be handed in at any Telegraph Office. It must be written on an ordinary inland message form, and must bear the full address of the applicant.

The Meteorological Office is open between the hours of 11 a.m. and 8 p.m. on week days, and 6 p.m. and 8 p.m. on Sundays.

PRIVATE WIRES.

1. The Department undertakes to construct and afterwards maintain, upon the payment of an annual rental, a line of private wire between the place of business or residence of a firm or private individual and a Postal Telegraph Office, or between two or more places of business or residences. The advantage of having a private wire laid into a Postal Telegraph Office is that the renter is placed in direct communication with the public wires to all parts of the kingdom or abroad, messages being received from and sent to the Postal Telegraph Office by wire instead of by hand.

2. The Department also undertakes to supply Greenwich mean time by electric current at either ten or one o'clock.

3. All applications or communications in regard to private wires or time signals should be addressed to "The Secretary, General Post Office, London, E.C."

FOREIGN TELEGRAMS.

(Regulations founded upon the International Telegraph Convention.)

1. Foreign telegrams are divided into three classes —ordinary, code, and cypher. Ordinary telegrams are those composed of a series of words, or of words, figures, and letters conveying an intelligible meaning.

2. Code telegrams are those composed of words, the context of which has no intelligible meaning. Proper names are not allowed in the text of code telegrams, except in their natural sense.

3. Cypher telegrams are those containing series or groups of figures or letters having a secret meaning; or words not to be found in a standard dictionary of the language. The portion in cypher must be composed exclusively of figures or exclusively of letters. Cypher telegrams written in letters are not accepted for Extra-European places, with the exception of places in North America.

4. The address of the receiver must be paid for, and must not consist of less than two words—a name and a town. Example—Hercules, Bombay.

5. The address of the sender is charged for if transmitted; it in any case must be written at the foot of the form.

6. In European telegrams the maximum length allowed for a single word is 15 letters; in Extra-European telegrams, 10 letters—any additional letters being counted and charged for as extra words, at the rate of 15 or 10 letters respectively to the word.

7. Subject to the limit imposed by rule 6, ordinary compound words and names of persons and places, &c., written without break or interruption, are counted as single words. If joined by a hyphen, or separated by an apostrophe, or other sign of punctuation, they are counted as so many separate words. Words incorrectly spelled, so as to reduce the number of letters below the maximum, or words incorrectly joined together, contrary to the usage of the language, cannot be accepted as single words.

8. Every separate letter or figure is charged for as one word, and in European telegrams every group of five figures or letters is counted as one word, larger groups being counted at the rate of five figures or letters to a word, plus one word for any excess. In Extra-European telegrams groups of figures or letters (when these are trade marks) are counted at the rate of three to a word, plus one word for any excess. Bars of division, decimal points, and stops used in the formation of numbers are counted as figures. Letters added to figures to form ordinal numbers are counted as figures.

9. In telegrams addressed to residents in large towns, the name of the street and number of the house in which the addressee resides should be given; and the addresses should be expressed in French, or in the language of the country to which they are to be sent. When these particulars cannot be given, the profession, trade, or calling of the addressee of the telegram should, if possible, be stated. Telegrams which do not contain this information are forwarded only at the risk of the sender. In telegrams addressed to places of which there are more than one of the same name, the name of the country or state in which the place is situated should be added to the address.

10. The sender is held responsible for an incorrect or insufficient address; corrections, alterations, or additions to the address can only be made by means of a fresh telegram, which must be paid for at the ordinary rate.

11. Persons residing in the United Kingdom may have an abbreviated or fixed address, or special instructions respecting the hours of delivery of telegrams which they may expect to receive, registered at the chief office of the town in which they reside, upon payment at that office of a registration fee of one guinea per annum.

12. If the sender of a telegram desires to prepay a reply of 10 words, he must insert before the address of the receiver "R P," which is charged for as one word; but if he desires the reply to consist of more or less than 10 words, he must insert the words, "R P ——," which are charged for as two words; more than 30 words cannot be prepaid. In telegrams for Extra-European Countries the sender must always insert the words, "R P ——."

13. The sender of a telegram can have it repeated from office to office to the terminal office by paying over and above the charge for the original transmission half that charge in addition. In that case "T C," which is charged for as one word, must be inserted immediately before the receiver's address.

14. Repetition is desirable for all code telegrams.

15. On payment of a charge equal to one half the inland rate, the sender of a telegram can have it repeated between the office of origin and the office in Great Britain at which it is handed over to the Cable Company.

16. The sender may have a notice of the time at which his telegram was delivered transmitted to him by telegraph by payment of an additional rate for 10 words. In that case "C R," which is charged for as one word, must be inserted before the receiver's address. In North American telegrams the acknowledgment of receipt is charged for as a five-word message.

17. The receiver of a telegram can, within 24 hours after its delivery, request the Department to obtain the correction of passages which appear to him to be doubtful. For this purpose he must pay for two separate telegrams, viz.:—1. A telegram requesting the repetition, and containing the instruction "R P" or "R P ——." 2. A telegram calculated according to the length of the passage to be repeated, plus two words for the address of the reply. The amount thus paid is refunded, on application being made to the Secretary, General Post Office, if it should prove that the telegram has been inaccurately transmitted.

18. The receiver of a telegram addressed to a place in the United Kingdom may have it repeated from the office at which it was handed over by the Cable Company to the Department on depositing the ordinary inland rate for the part of the telegram of which he requires the repetition; and if it be found that an error has taken place on the lines of this Department, the amount deposited for the repetition will be refunded.

19. When the sender is not quite certain of the exact place at which the receiver of the telegram will be found, he may insert immediately before the address the words "faire suivre" (to follow), which will be charged for as two words, or "F. S." which will be charged for as one word. Telegrams "to follow" are not accepted for Extra-European countries.

20. In telegrams intended to be left until called for at Telegraph Offices or at Post Offices, the words "Bureau restant" or "Poste restante" must be inserted as part of the receiver's address.

21. A telegram addressed to several persons in the same town, or to the same firm at different localities in the same town, is charged for as a single telegram, and a sum of 5d. must be prepaid for every extra copy to be delivered, if the number of chargeable words does not exceed 100; an additional sum of 5d. being charged for every additional 100 words or part of 100 words. In calculating the charge all the names and addresses are included. Telegrams having multiple addresses are not accepted for North or South America.

22. Under no circumstances is the charge for an unrepeated telegram, which has been inaccurately transmitted, refunded. The cost of a telegram inaccurately transmitted, of which the repetition to the terminal office has been paid by the sender, is returned if the telegram was rendered useless. The cost of telegrams which have failed to reach their destination, owing to some error on the part of the telegraph service; and the cost of telegrams which have been delayed beyond two days in the case of European, and beyond six days in the case of Extra-European telegrams, from other causes than an interruption of the telegraphic communication, is returned to the senders. The cost of any telegrams which may have been rendered necessary in consequence of the non-delivery, delay, or incorrect transmission of a telegram is in no case returned. The amount paid for a telegram cancelled before transmission is returned, less 6d. If the telegram is cancelled after transmission has commenced, but before it has reached the place to which it is addressed, any balance of charges which may be due will be returned.

23. Claims for reimbursement should be accompanied—1. In the case of non-delivery, by a written statement from the terminal office, or the addressee, that the telegram has not been received. 2. In the case of error in a telegram of which the sender has prepaid the repetition to the office of destination, or of delay, by the actual message form delivered to the addressee. 3. In the case of error in a telegram of which the receiver has paid the repetition from the office of origin, by the original message form delivered to the addressee, together with the form upon which the repeated telegram is written.

24. No claim for reimbursement for European telegrams will be entertained unless it is made within two months of the date of the original telegram; nor in the case of Extra-European telegrams, unless it is made within six months from the date of the original telegram. Foreign administrations decline to make any inquiry into complaints which do not involve a return of the cost of the telegram within the limits of Rule 22.

MAILS FOR THE ORKNEY ISLANDS.

Mails to and from the Orkney Islands are conveyed daily (excepting Sunday) from Thurso at 9.25 a.m., and from Kirkwall at 7.0 a.m.

MAILS FOR THE SHETLAND ISLANDS.

The mails for the Shetland Islands are despatched from Aberdeen every Monday and Friday evenings, arriving at Lerwick on Wednesday and Sunday mornings; and returning from Lerwick to Aberdeen every Monday and Wednesday at 6 and 10 p.m. alternately.

There is a third weekly mail leaving Aberdeen on Wednesday evenings, and returning from Shetland on Fridays at 6 and 10 p.m. alternately, during the summer months from May to September.

MAILS FOR LEWIS.

Mails to and from the Island of Lewis are conveyed between Ullapool and Stornoway five days a week from 1st April to 30th June, six days a week from 1st July to 30th September, and three days a week during the remainder of the year. The excepted days in Summer are Sunday and Tuesday. In Winter the steamer leaves Stornoway on Monday, Wednesday, and Friday mornings, arriving at Ullapool in time for despatch of the South mail, and leaves Ullapool for Stornoway on the same mornings at 10.30.

LIST OF POST TOWNS AND SUB-OFFICES IN SCOTLAND.

☞ It must be understood that the hours for closing the Letter Box are liable to alteration in the course of the current year, and, therefore, the Tables exhibited on the board at the Post Office or the Local Post Office Guide ought to be occasionally consulted.

All Offices at which Money Order and Post Office Savings Banks business is transacted are marked thus, m. Postal Telegraph Offices are marked thus, t. Railway Companies Stations that collect and deliver Telegrams on behalf of the Post Office are marked thus, r.

When in the subjoined list one place only is mentioned, it is a Head Office, or what is termed a Railway Sub-Office—that is, a Sub-Office which receives its correspondence direct from a Travelling Post Office instead of through a Post Town; and when two are mentioned, the first is a Sub-Office, and the second is the Head Office, to which the first is subordinate. It sometimes happens that there is a Money Order Office nearer the Sub-Office than is the Head Office; in these cases such Money Order Office is added as a third name, for the information of any persons who may wish to remit money to the neighbourhood. All Head Offices are Money Order Offices, but all Sub-Offices are not.

Note.—When the time of despatch to a Sub-Office is wanted, the times of despatch to the Head (or second) Office should be referred to.

BAILLIE'S INSTITUTION

Was founded by Mr. George Baillie, writer in Glasgow, who divested himself in his lifetime of his whole fortune (£18,000), which with its accumulations during twenty-one years from 11th November, 1863, he appointed to be applied to the erection and endowment of an Institution in Glasgow, to be called "Baillie's Institution," having for its objects, 1st, To aid the self-culture of the operative classes by means of free public libraries; and 2nd, The instruction of their children in unsectarian schools. The former of these, however, is alone to be proceeded with, unless there is a sufficiency of funds for both. The Dean, Council, and Clerk of the Faculty of Procurators in Glasgow are perpetual preceptor, patrons, and directors of the institution, which was incorporated by royal charter, dated March 18, 1867. UNITED EVANGELISTIC ASSOCIATION.

This association was formed in 1874, for the purpose of uniting the churches in evangelistic work among the masses. In addition to ordinary evangelistic services, open air preaching, &c, a hall was built in James Morrison Street, at a cost of about £16,000, where a free breakfast is given every Sabbath morning to upwards of 1500 people, gathered from the very poorest; and at 2 o'clock p.m., about 1000 poor children receive a Bible lesson and a dinner—managed by a joint-committee of the Sabbath School Union and Foundry Boys' Religious Society. Springing from this last, two Day Refuges have been carried on for some years, where children, who are entirely or worse than neglected at home, receive three meals a day, and are otherwise helped in their education. There is also a Home at Saltcoats, in which the children are kept entirely. In connection with the children's Sabbath dinner a committee meets every Thursday at 7·30 p.m., in the new hall, James Morrison street, to inquire into the cases of poor children sent from any quarter. Income of the association, for all purposes, amounts to about £5000.

President, J. Campbell White, 7 West George st.; joint-secretaries, John R. Miller, 2 Somerset place, and Robt. Stewart, 116 W. Regent street; treasurer, Rev. Jas. Scott, B.Sc., United Evangelistic Hall, Jas. Morrison street.

SCOTTISH PERMISSIVE BILL AND TEMPERANCE ASSOCIATION.

Object.—The promotion of total abstinence as a rule of life, the creation of an enlightened public opinion in favour of the Suppression of all Traffic in Intoxicating Liquors as beverages, and to secure, through the united efforts of moral and social reformers, the passage into law of a measure framed to effectually suppress that traffic by the direct votes of the ratepayers.

Ex-Treasurer Hamilton, J P., Glasgow, president; vice-presidents, Sir Wilfrid Lawson, Bart., M.P.; Jas. Stewart, M.P.; Provost Moncur, Dundee; ex-Bailie Jamieson, Perth; J. D. Bryce, J.P.; Provost M'Lean, Partick; J. Roberton, J.P.; T. Livingstone Learmouth, J.P.; John Wilson, J.P.; Professor W. G. Blaikie, D.D., Edinburgh; Professor Kirk, &c., with upwards of 120 hon. vice-presidents and directors; Bailie Torrens, J.P., chairman of executive; ex-Provost Dick, vice-chairman of do.; William Smith, treasurer; Bailie Selkirk, J.P., hon. secy., R. Mackay, secretary, 112 Bath Street. Official organ, "Social Reformer," published monthly, one penny. The income last year amounted to £2546 10s. 10½d., being an increase of £285 5s. 11d. on the year, and the balance to carry forward was £86 6s. 3d. The surplus assets amounted to £232 9s. 1d. The income is inclusive of £224 16s. specially subscribed for Parliamentary fund.

The number of meetings addressed by representatives of the Association in the course of a year ranges from 1200 to 1500. The Association fully employs six agents and secretary, besides agents in various parts of the country, who are meantime partially engaged. Scotland is divided into districts, with headquarters in Glasgow, Edinburgh, Aberdeen, Dumfries, and Peebles. The Association has increased its Parliamentary position materially. Through its exertions shared by kindred Associations Scotland has, through her Parliamentary representatives, often shown a majority vote in favour of the principle of prohibiting all traffic in intoxicating liquors by the vote of the ratepayers. On the 27th April, 1883, the House of Commons accepted a resolution calling on the Government to deal early with the liquor traffic. The Scotch vote on that occasion was—for the resolution, 46; against it, 2; or a majority of 23 to 1. The Government in the Queen's Speech have pledged themselves to take action on the resolution. Mr. M'Lagan, M.P. for Linlithgowshire, have introduced into Parliament a bill giving the ratepayers of Scotland power to abolish all traffic in intoxicating liquors in their respective burghs, wards of burghs, parishes, and districts when so minded, and the Executive have resolved to give his measure a vigorous and sustained support. To enable them to bring the influence of the Scottish electorate to bear successfully upon the government of the day, and in favour of the Liquor Traffic Local Veto (Scotland) Bill of Mr. M'Lagan, liberal subscriptions to the funds are urgently required, and will be gratefully received at the offices or by the agents. Subscribers to the Association of £1 and upwards yearly receive a copy of the Alliance News weekly, and the Social Reformer monthly, free; while subscribers of 5s. per annum receive the Social Reformer, post free, as issued. Please note the address —112 Bath Street.

The aim and object of this Home is to supply a desideratum, the want of which has been long experienced in this city and the West of Scotland, viz., to afford temporary shelter and maintenance to destitute and houseless mothers, with their helpless infants. While resident in the Home a vigilant supervision is exercised over them. Much attention is paid to their moral and religious welfare, and every effort made to procure suitable situations for them. The infants are placed under the care of proper and trustworthy nurses, all of whom are under the oversight and supervision of the matron.

For sixty-one years this Society has been seeking the welfare of all the sailors who visit the port of Glasgow. The agents of the Society meet vessels on their arrival, and direct the sailors to respectable lodgings; attend at the pay office and try to get the men to bank their money; invite the sailors to the social and religious meetings conducted by the Society, and correspond with seamen on long voyages. Libraries are placed on board out-going vessels, and bags of illustrated periodicals, scrap books, &c., of an interesting character, are regularly supplied. The Seamen's Institute, 146 Broomielaw, is free to all sailors—in 1883 40,459 sailors took advantage of it—where the daily papers, books, games, &c., are provided all free; and 2600 letters were written by the men. A daily prayer meeting is held there at 11.15 a.m.; and on the South Side free reading and recreation rooms have just been opened in Eaglesham street, Govan road, where every facility is provided for the sailor spending his time happily when on shore.

At the Seamen's Chapel, 9 Brown street, five services are held every week, the Saturday night one being a social free tea meeting; and at the Seamen's Bethel, Eaglesham st., Govan rd., six services are held weekly, the Saturday night one being also a social free tea meeting. Seats are all free, and books provided for the sailors. A missionary, who speaks different languages, is constantly employed among the foreign sailors and emigrants; special meetings being held for such.

Seamen's families are all regularly visited, and the widows of seamen who have been left unprovided for by their husbands—and in many cases with large families—are helped by money, clothing, work, &c., while a large number of orphan children are educated at the cost of the society.

Seven agents are constantly employed, assisted by a band of voluntary workers.

The expenditure of the Society this year will be about £1500. There is no endowment, but it is entirely supported by voluntary contributions. Help is earnestly solicited.

This institution affords a channel for those who sympathize with railway servants through which to help them in the time of need, and the extent of its sphere of usefulness depends in a great measure upon public support. It has been established to provide for the necessitous members, orphans, children, and widows of the railway officers and servants in the United Kingdom. Its object is to clothe, maintain, and educate orphan children, and to grant relief by annuities and money allowances to members who, from old age, disease, or accident, may be unable any longer to obtain a livelihood, and to the widows of those, who may be left in distressed circumstances. Railway officers subscribe 10s. 6d. per annum, railway servants 8s. per annum, to constitute them members, or they may subscribe 2s. per annum to the orphanage only. One moiety of the funds contributed by the public is apportioned between an officers' department and a servants' department in proportion to the amount the members severally subscribe; the other moiety of the donations is applicable to a special benevolent fund for relieving distress amongst officers or servants, whether members of the institution or not, and the widows and orphans of men killed in the performance of their duty. The sum set apart for the orphans of officers is appropriated to their maintenance and education in private establishments selected by their friends and approved by the board of management. Should the funds be insufficient to provide pensions or school benefits for all qualified applicants, there is an election by ballot, and the election of annuitants and orphans is vested in the subscribers, who have also the privilege of recommending cases for gratuities out of the special benevolent fund. In dispensing relief the rules of the institution provide that "the most necessitous must at all times be first relieved."

Donations and subscriptions.—A donation of £105 in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a patron or patroness for life, with the privilege of fifteen votes. A donation of £52 10s. in one sum, or in payments of not less than £10 10s. each, constitutes the donor a vice-president for life, with the privilege of six votes. A donation of £10 10s. constitutes the donor a life subscriber, with the privilege of one vote. A yearly payment of £1 1s. (or in quarterly or half-yearly instalments) constitutes a subscriber, with the privilege of two votes. An annual subscription of 10s. 6d. constitutes a subscriber, with one vote. Any three donors or subscribers may also recommend applicants qualified for relief from the special benevolent fund.

Appeal.—The Scotch committee of management respectfully and earnestly appeals for aid to the shareholders of railways individually, as specially interested in those upon whom devolve the executive duties in their railway establishments, and to the benevolent of all classes, who are either directly or indirectly benefited by the services of a numerous, well-disciplined, and laborious class of public servants. Donations and subscriptions will be gratefully received and duly acknowledged by the secretary for Scotland, Joseph Tatlow, St. Enoch Station, Glasgow.

Pres., Mrs. W. Gray, Nunraw Castle, Haddington; secretary, Miss Watson, 9 Woodside Ter.; treasurer, Mrs. Napier, Woodlee, Windsor Circus.

The aim of the Society is to provide warm clothing for the poor fever patients when about to be dismissed from the comforts of the hospitals to their own homes. In too many cases their original clothing is scanty and utterly insufficient to protect even a vigorous person from the cold. But for the aid of the society they would, when divested of the warm suits provided for use within the hospital, be sent out in tattered garments, as well as with enfeebled bodies, almost certainly to the permanent injury of their health. The utmost care is taken that the articles are given to the needy and deserving only. There is no convalescent home for poor fever patients.

THE MITCHELL LIBRARY.

Temporary Premises—60 Ingram Street.

Founded on a bequest of the late Stephen Mitchell, Esq. Mr. Mitchell died in April, 1874, and the bequest was accepted by the Town Council in July of the same year.

The library was opened November 1, 1877, and is open daily from 9.30 a.m. till 10 p.m. uninterruptedly. It contains about 53,000 volumes, and is believed to be the largest library in Scotland to which the general public have a right of free admission. The books are not permitted to be taken away, but may be read in the library, which has been conveniently furnished for this purpose. There is a magazine room, where may be seen more than 230 of the principal weekly, monthly, and quarterly periodicals, including a number of American, German, and French. The admission is free, and no introduction or guarantee is required. In the selection of the books to form the library, efforts have been made to give it a thoroughly representative character, so that students in every department of knowledge will derive advantage from its use. Collections of books relating to Scotland, and particularly to Glasgow and the West, are forming. The "Poets Corner" is believed to contain the largest and most valuable library of Burns and Scottish Poets and Dramatists in existence. Much attentation has also been devoted to securing standard works on industrial and technological subjects.

The number of readers is large, the average number of volumes consulted daily being from 1200 to 1300. The total number issued from the commencement to 31st March, 1884, was 2,364,634, exclusive of the reading of the periodicals in the magazine room.

Over £15,300,000 have been paid to policyholders in twenty-four years.

All profits divided among policyholders. Policies indisputable after three years from their date.

THIS Society has for some years done the largest business of any office in the world, and has introduced a new form of Life Assurance, known as the TONTINE SAVINGS' FUND POLICY. On this plan the profits are divided at stated periods, viz., TEN, FIFTEEN, or TWENTY YEARS, which must be determined upon at time of entry. When the Assured's TONTINE period has arrived he becomes entitled to his share of the Accumulated Profits, and he is then given one of the following options:—

First.—To take the cash value of his Policy.
Second.—To take a paid up non-participating Policy for an equivalent of its cash value.
Third.—A yearly increasing annuity and the original sum at death to his heirs.

The following Table gives the results, as estimated, of a 20-year Policy taken out on the Tontine Savings' Fund plan of Assurance:—

SUM ASSURED, £1000.

ESTIMATED RESULTS AT THE END OF 20 YEARS.

Age.	Annual Premium.	Total Premiums Paid.	Cash Value of Policy.	Equivalent Value in Paid up Policy.	Annuity for Life and £1000 at Death.
25	£19 17 6	£397 10 0	£600 0 0	£1600 0 0	£19 4 2
35	26 7 6	527 10 0	868 0 0	1770 0 0	38 12 5
45	37 19 2	759 3 4	1353 0 0	2160 0 0	94 4 7

Thus, one aged 25, after 20 payments of £19 17s. 6d., may choose any of the three ways, viz., cash £600, and give up his Policy; a paid-up Policy for £1600; or an annuity of £19 4s. 2d., increasing yearly, and the £1000 at death to his heirs.

Or, if the Policies are taken out upon the higher scale of Premium in the Tontine Class, the advantages are still more apparent, as may be seen by the following Table:—

SUM ASSURED, £1000.

20 ANNUAL PAYMENTS. ESTIMATED RESULTS AT THE END OF 20 YEARS.

Age.	Annual Premiums.	Total Premiums Paid.	Cash Value of Policy.	Equivalent Value in Paid-up Policy.	Annuity for Life and £1000 at Death.
25	£27 7 6	£547 10 0	£969	£2580	£51 16 0
35	34 1 8	681 13 4	1263	2570	80 16 0
45	45 0 10	900 16 8	1764	2820	153 8 0

THIS SOCIETY DIFFERS IN ITS PRINCIPLES FROM OTHER OFFICES.

INSTEAD of charging rates higher than are necessary, and afterwards returning the excess in the shape of periodical Bonuses, it gives from the first as large an assurance as the Premiums will with safety bear—reserving the Whole Surplus for those who live long enough to secure the Common Fund from loss.

A Policy for £1200 to £1250 may thus at most ages be had for the Premium usually charged for £1000 only; while, by RESERVING the Surplus, large Additions may be looked for on the Policies of those who participate. At last Investigation Policies for £1000 sharing a first time were increased to sums ranging from £1170 to £1300. In some cases Policies which shared at the whole four divisions have now been doubled.

ITS TERMS are thus specially adapted to the case of Provisions in Family Settlements, or otherwise, where it is of importance to secure, for the smallest present outlay, a competent provision of definite amount in the case of early death.

Annual Premium for £100 at Death (with Profits).

AGE.	25	30	35	40	45	50
DURING LIFE.	£1 18 0	2 1 6*	2 6 10	2 14 9	3 5 9	4 1 7
21 PAYMENTS.	2 12 6	2 15 4	3 0 2	3 7 5†	3 17 6	4 12 1

* A person of 30 may thus secure £1000 at Death by a yearly payment, during life, of £20 15s., which would generally secure elsewhere about £300 only.

† At age 40, the Premium ceasing at age 60, is for £1000 £33 14s. 2d.—being about the same as most Offices require to be paid during the whole term of life.

The New Business has, for several years, exceeded a Million.

The EXPENSES of MANAGEMENT (under 9 per cent. on Premiums, and 6¼ per cent. on Income) are greatly under those of any Institution doing a large amount of New Business.

The FUNDS have increased in eight years by TWO MILLIONS.

The PREMIUM INCOME has doubled in Ten Years.

The FUNDS now amount to £4,736,300.

Only two Offices in the Kingdom (both much older) have as large a Fund.

Full STATEMENTS of PRINCIPLES will be found in the ANNUAL REPORTS, which may be had on application.

THIS ASSOCIATION presents the benefits of Life Assurance in a variety of forms adapted to the circumstances and requirements of all classes, at Rates of Premium which will bear favourable comparison with those of any other Company affording similar advantages. It also furnishes in the shape of Endowment-Assurances, payable to the Assured themselves on the attainment of Specified Ages, or to their Representatives at death, should that happen sooner. These Policies are specially adapted for Young Lives

PROVISIONS FOR OLD AGE

NON-FORFEITURE POLICIES.

Under the Non-Forfeiture System, premiums are payable for a limited number of years only, and each payment (after a fifth of the whole number has been made) secures absolutely a proportionate part of the Sum Assured. Policy-holders can thus, if they find it expedient, discontinue the payment of premiums without losing any of the benefits for which they may have already paid.

FAMILY TRUST POLICIES.

Policies on the Non-Forfeiture System are now issued under the 'Married Women's Policies of Assurance (Scotland) Act, 1880,' securing Family Provisions free from the control of Creditors. The Association is thus in a position to offer an absolutely secure provision for the family of an assured life for every premium paid, without the necessity of a separate Trust Deed.

IMMEDIATE PARTICIPATION IN PROFITS.

The Profits are ascertained and divided every Five Years—Nine-Tenths (Ninety Per Cent.) being appropriated to the Assured, and each Policy-holder having an equitable share allotted to him, however recent his Assurance. At the Seven successive Periodical Investigations, which took place in 1846, 1853, 1860, 1865, 1870, 1875, and 1880, Reversionary Bonus Additions, at rates which have never been less than were made to the Sums Assured by all Participating Policies effected for the whole term of life. Thus a Policy for £1000 opened in 1840 now amounts to £1650.

ONE POUND TEN SHILLINGS PER CENT. PER ANNUM,

THE EIGHTH DIVISION OF PROFITS WILL TAKE PLACE AT CHRISTMAS, 1885. Policies effected during 1884 will then be entitled to TWO YEARS' BONUS ADDITIONS.

SUBSISTING ASSURANCES,	£4,250,000
CLAIMS PAID,	2,000,000
INVESTED FUNDS,	1,285,000
REVERSIONARY BONUS DECLARED	733,000

Loans are granted, in connection with Life Assurance, on Life Interests, Reversions, Personal, and other approved securities. Liberal Conditions as to Foreign Residence.

THE last Quinquennial Valuation was made on the basis of the Institute of Actuaries' (HM) Table of Mortality and 3 per cent. interest. The Valuation was strictly a net premium one, the whole of the loading being reserved.

Features of Life Policies.

PAYMENT OF CLAIMS is generally made immediately after proof of death and title.

A GUARDIAN Policy of 5 years' standing can be revived within thirteen months on payment of the premiums overdue and a fine, no evidence of health being required.

A GUARDIAN Policy of 5 years' standing is free from all restrictions as to foreign residence and travel, provided the life assured has attained the age of 30, and has not previously exceeded the free limits, nor is in the military, naval, nor mercantile marine services.

Forfeiture of a GUARDIAN Policy on account of Suicide is limited to thirteen months.

A GUARDIAN Policy is indisputable on the ground of any bonâ fide error in the proposal after the age has been admitted.

The GUARDIAN issues, when required, special forms of Trust Policies for Wife and Children.

The GUARDIAN system of Paid-up and Non-Forfeiture Policies gives ample protection to Policyholders who from any cause cannot continue their periodical payments.

WESTERN INFIRMARY OF GLASGOW.

(For list of Managers, Medical Officers, and other particulars, see page 117 in the Appendix).

STATEMENT AND APPEAL.

I. The Western Infirmary was opened in the beginning of November, 1874, with 200 beds, but by the munificence of the late Mr. John Freeland of Nice, the accommodation was increased to 400 beds at a cost of £40,000. The new addition was opened in 1881, and was at once made available to the public.

II. During the year (ending 31st October, 1883) 18,905 out, and 3565 in-door patients were treated, showing a total increase of 2417 as compared with the preceding twelve months.

The Freeland addition to the Infirmary being now fully occupied, it is estimated that the cost for maintenance during the current year will be from £19,000 to £20,000; and as the ordinary income from all sources last year was under £16,000, the necessity for new and increased support will readily be seen. The liberal spirit, however, in which all classes of the community have hitherto supported the Institution gives the Managers confidence in believing that the appeal which they now make will meet with a prompt and generous response.

III. The Managers take the liberty of drawing attention to the subjoined Form of Bequest, in the hope that from this source they may be enabled gradually to accumulate a special fund from the investment of which, in so far as it is not required for contingencies, a considerable supplementary revenue may in time be derived.

FORM OF BEQUEST TO THE WESTERN INFIRMARY.

I of do hereby leave to the WESTERN INFIRMARY OF GLASGOW, free of legacy duty and charges, a Legacy of* pounds sterling, which I authorise and direct my Executors to pay to the Treasurer or any two of the Managers thereof for the time being, upon his or their receipt, which shall be a sufficient discharge.

Dated at Glasgow, this* day of Eighteen Hundred and Eighty years.

(Testator's Signature).

* Sum and Date to be expressed in words, not in figures.

Funds are required and earnestly solicited for the upkeep of the Infirmary; all Annual Contributions and Donations sent to the Subscribers will be thankfully received and duly acknowledged.

A. B. M'GRIGOR, LL.D., Hon. Treasurer.

JAMES THOMPSON,
GENERAL MANAGER.

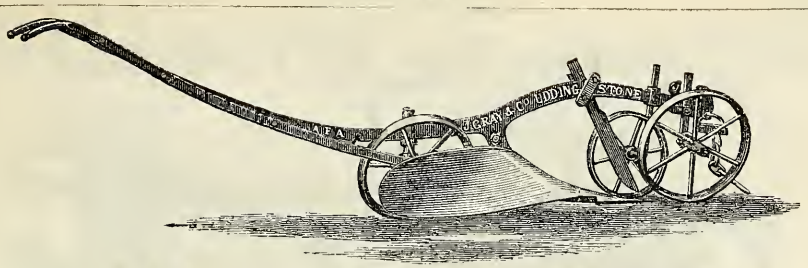
GLASGOW ROYAL INFIRMARY.

THIS Institution has now been in existence for nearly a Century. It has accommodation for 550 Patients, and the Wards are generally full.

Though managed on the strictest economic principles, the Ordinary Expenditure of last year was nearly £25,000; while the Ordinary Income, including about £4000 of Interest on Legacies invested, was under £19,000.

For a number of years the Ordinary Expenditure has been, on an average, about £5000 in excess of the Ordinary Income. There has, consequently, been a serious drain upon Invested Funds; and this cannot long continue, as a considerable portion is beyond the control of the Directors, and partly held in Trust, liable to Repayment.

They, therefore, earnestly appeal to the Public for increased Liberality, in order that the same state of efficiency may be maintained, without the necessity of curtailing the accommodation.



The most recent improvements in the Nursing System, and in the Domestic Arrangements, have been introduced; and the Directors have reason to believe that there is no similar Institution in the Kingdom, in which Patients are so well provided for at so little expense.

Copies of the Annual Report, which gives full particulars, will be gladly sent on application; and Contributions will be thankfully received and acknowledged by

SIMPLEX DOUGHING MACHINE.

PATENT.

THIS Machine by its peculiar construction combines all the properties of a perfect bread dougher, and possesses the following important advantages over every other machine in the market:—

The dough is thoroughly mixed and kneaded without being felled, requires no after treading, and readily acquires in moulding a superior skin.

The Machine empties itself without requiring to be reversed.

The friction is about one-half, and the power required to drive about thirty per cent. less than in other machines. One of the Simplex Machines with only 4 in. belt and 9 ft. drive is doughing 3 batches—6½ sacks of 280 lbs.—in 8 minutes.

The Machine is simple, very strong, and not liable to get out of repair. The casing and knives are made of the best steel.

The price is extremely moderate.

These Machines are made in three sizes, 5 and 2½ sack for power, and one sack (280 lbs.) for power or hand—a man and boy being sufficient for working by hand.

GRAIN AND GENERAL GRINDING MILLS; AND COFFEE ROASTING WORKS.

DAVID MINTO, GRÆME STREET.

THE COFFEE PLANT, "Coffea Arabica" of Linnæus, is an evergreen, and, as may be inferred from its scientific name, is a native of Arabia. It produces a pulpy berry about the size of a small cherry, inclosing two seeds, which, separated from their pulpy envelope, form the well-known Coffee beans of commerce. It may be remarked as a singular fact, in reference to Coffee, that while all of the vegetable kingdom that have been taken under the care of man have been improved, it alone asserts its independence; for although cultivation may greatly enlarge the crop, it as certainly at the same time deteriorates the flavour, and the produce of the wild plant still maintains the highest figure in the market. It is well known that Coffee would be of no real value were it not properly roasted—a process which, as it requires much skill, is only to be acquired by experience. How man became acquainted with the fact that the tasteless seeds of a berry, when roasted, ground, and infused, would form a grateful beverage, will most probably remain a secret to the end of time. That the development of its useful properties depends wholly upon the roasting, is evident. About two hundred years ago Coffee was first introduced into England, since which its consumption has steadily increased, and deservedly so, when its medical properties are considered, it having been found useful in headaches arising from a particular state of the stomach, and much benefit having been derived from its exhibition in cases of asthma.

A French scientific gentleman, who has directed his attention to this subject, says:—"I have found that Coffee is better roasted, and more of the aroma retained, when a double cylinder is used—the air between the interior and exterior cylinders acting as a non-conductor of heat. It is done more uniformly, while the essential oil on which the aroma depends is less liable to be dispersed than when exposed to the fierce heat of a fire in a single cylinder."

In the double rotatory globular method of roasting as practised at Mr. MINTO's Works, Græme Street, Glasgow, the above principle is acted upon, inasmuch as the globe (which has superseded the cylinder since the application of steam-power to this branch) revolves in a medium of heated air, which, experience has shown, best prevents the dispersion of the essential oil, or aroma.

EXTENSION OF PATENT.

THE "EJECTOR-CONDENSER."

MORTON'S PATENTS.

The "EJECTOR-CONDENSER" produces a full vacuum without an Air Pump, in all kinds of Steam Engines and Steam Pumps, and when applied to existing Non-Condensing Engines, gives a saving of 25 to 50 per cent. of fuel, or an equivalent increase of power; and for Winding Engines this is the only safe Condenser in use. The vacuum is constant, whether the engines are at rest or in motion, and many are working with great success. These apparatus, from their saving in fuel alone, very soon pay their own cost.

THE FIXED DOUBLE NOZZLE AUTOMATIC INJECTORS feed Water of high temperature into Steam Boilers. These Injectors and the WATER LIFTERS are the most simple and efficient apparatus in use for raising and forcing water. Full information and prices on application.

Pure Nickel is a beautiful white metal—very hard—it takes on a polish equal to Silver; it is easily kept clean, and from its extreme hardness, its durability is far greater than Silver. It is excellently adapted for Ship and Plumber Fittings, Grates, Fire-irons, Saddlery, Surgical Instruments, &c., and is cheaper than Silver Plating.

TONTINE INVESTMENT POLICIES,

By combining an INSURANCE, an INVESTMENT, and an ANNUITY,

OFFER SPECIAL ADVANTAGES TO INSURERS.

ACTUAL RESULTS.

The following Policies were taken out on the above plan at the London Office of the NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY (76 and 77 Cheapside), in 1871 and 1872, and having matured, have all recently been paid :—

Plan—TEN-YEAR ENDOWMENT—10-Year Tontine.

Policy No.	Policy Amount.	Annual Premium.	Total Amount Paid by Company.
	£ s. d.	£ s. d.	£ s. d.
84,253	250 0 0	26 8 9	349 9 8
84,255	250 0 0	26 18 3	351 13 5
84,298	250 0 0	26 7 8	349 3 10
86,278	1,000 0 0	105 15 0	1,384 9 9
86,632	1,000 0 0	105 2 2	1,380 19 4
86,848	1,000 0 0	106 0 0	1,385 18 3

Note.—The Policy-holder in each case was insured against death during the ten years, and being alive at the maturity of the Policy, he received an amount equivalent to the refund of all he had invested, with nearly five per cent. compound interest; thus his insurance during the ten years cost him nothing.

Non-Forfeiting Limited-Tontine Policies.

These Policies combine the Non-Forfeiture features, originated by the New York Life in 1860, with the Privileges and Profits of its popular "Tontine Investment Policy."

The popularity attained by this Company's Non-Forfeiture Policies, and the gratifying results, as well as popularity of its Tontine Investment Policies, have led the New York Life to combine the essential features of both in its Non-Forfeiting Limited-Tontine Policy. This Policy, which provides against loss in case of default in payment of premium after three years, by the guarantee of a paid-up Policy, is now confidently offered by this Company.

SPECIAL ADVANTAGES.

The Grand Features of both the Tontine Investment and Non-Forfeiting Limited-Tontine Policies of the New York Life are as follows :—

1. Insurance during a selected period, fixed by the insured in his application, which period may be either ten, fifteen, or twenty years, as his age and circumstances may dictate.

2. The privilege of re-adjusting his Policy, at the end of its Tontine period, to suit his new circumstances; when he may continue his insurance if he needs insurance, take the cash value of his Policy if he needs money, or take part cash and part insurance, or take part or all in an annuity.

3. These Policies, if kept in force till maturity, not only give the insured these valuable privileges, but they give larger returns in cash than Policies upon other plans.

4. Policy-holders are allowed a grace of one month in the payment of premiums on these Policies (subject to a fine), during which their indemnity under them is unimpaired—a privilege accorded under no other form of Policy.

5. The fact that these Policies have a surrender value of the entire legal reserve, guaranteed at a definite time, renders them a safe and acceptable collateral security for the later premiums, and so diminishes the probabilities of lapse.

Non-Forfeiting Limited-Tontine Policies.

ESTIMATES.

The following Estimates have been prepared to illustrate the practical working of Policies on this plan:—

ORDINARY LIFE—20-Year Tontine Policy.

Example:—A person aged 40, by the Annual Payment of £31 6s. 0d., can secure for 20 years an Insurance of £1000, and then either—

A Cash Payment of £917 0 0 | An Annuity for Life of £94 1 0

Or a Paid-up Policy for £1,545 0 0*

* For full particulars, see Prospectus.

TWENTY-YEAR ENDOWMENT—20-Year Tontine Policy.

Example:—A person aged 40, by the Annual Payment of £51 15s. 7d., can secure for 20 years an Insurance of £1000, and then either—

A Cash Payment of	£1,787 0 0
An Annuity for Life of	183 5 0
Or a Paid-up Policy for	3,010 0 0

* For full particulars, see Prospectus.

ANNUAL BONUS POLICIES.

Besides combining the Tontine System with all the ordinary plans of Insurance, the Company issues Policies on the following plans, with Annual Bonuses:—

ORDINARY LIFE.

On this plan the Premiums are continued during the life-time of the Assured, and the amount is payable at death.

LIMITED PAYMENT LIFE by 10, 15, or 20 Years' Payments.

On these plans the Premiums cease in 10, 15, or 20 years (according to plan originally chosen), the amounts being payable at death.

These Policies continue to participate in Bonuses after all the Premiums have been paid on them.

ENDOWMENT by 10, 15, or 20 Years' Payments.

On these plans the amounts are payable in 10, 15, or 20 years (according to plan originally chosen) to Assured, or in case of previous death to their representatives.

ANNUITIES.

This Company grants Annuities upon more favourable rates than British Companies, the higher rate of interest obtained by their investments in first-class American securities, enabling them to do so.

RATE FOR £100 ANNUITY.

ADVANTAGES OFFERED

BY THE

NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY.

1st.—It is a MUTUAL COMPANY, AND NO LIABILITY IS INCURRED BY ITS POLICY-HOLDERS. There are no Shareholders. Profits are divided annually among the Policy-holders only.

2nd.—BONUSES can be used to reduce the second and following years' premiums, or to increase the amount of Policy.

3rd.—BONUSES are larger and Rates on the average lower than British Companies, owing to the higher rate of interest obtained on first-class investments in America.

4th.—SECURITY is guaranteed by the stringent laws of New York, which restrict Investments, fix a positive standard of solvency, and require a rigid annual examination to be made by the Government Insurance Department.

5th.—STABILITY. The accumulated funds, December 31st, 1883, were £11,379,945 securely invested. The annual income is £2,717,599, and the surplus over reserve and all liabilities £2,139,339.

6th.—The TONTINE POLICIES of this Company practically combine Life Insurance with an Investment or an Annuity, at the ordinary premium rates.

7th.—ANNUITIES. The amounts required to purchase these are lower on the average than those charged by British Companies.

8th.—LIBERALITY in payment of claims. The Records of the Company show many acknowledgments of its liberality and fairness in the payment of claims. There are no Shareholders, and consequently no interests adverse to those of the Policy-holders.

9th.—CLAIMS are payable in London in sterling, and all disputed claims (in case any should arise) in Great Britain are to be decided by British Courts.

The Standard Life Assurance Company.

THE DIRECTORS INVITE PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO THE LIBERAL CONDITIONS OF THE STANDARD POLICY.

Free Assurance.—Persons not less than 25 years of age, who, when proposing for Assurance, satisfy the Directors that they have no intention or prospect of proceeding abroad, from their occupation and other circumstances, are charged the ordinary Home Premium, and may afterwards proceed to and reside in any part of the world without extra premium.

Policies of Five Years' Duration, effected for the whole term of Life at a uniform rate of premium, may be renewed (without inquiry as to health) within thirteen months of date of lapsing, on payment of a fine; and in the event of death, the claims will be paid subject to deduction of Premiums unpaid and Fines. This arrangement affords unusual protection to Policy-holders.

Policies are Unchallengeable after Five Years' Duration, on any ground connected with the original documents, if age has been proved.

Surrender Values of fixed amount are allowed after payment of ONE ANNUAL PREMIUM on "With Profit" Policies, or after THREE ANNUAL PREMIUMS on those "Without Profits."

Paid-up or Non-forfeitable Policies of not less than £50 are granted in exchange for the Surrender Value, whether the Policy has been effected by payments for life or by a limited number of payments.

Claims are paid Three Months after proof of death on all Policies now being issued.

Loans are granted on Policies within their Surrender Value.

Bonuses on Policies now being issued are at a high rate.

Mercantile Marine Service.—Officers in First-Class Vessels (excepting Petty Officers, &c.) are not charged extra for trading to ports within the Company's free limits, and Whole World Assurances are granted on unusually favourable terms.

THE BONUS SYSTEM.

THE COMPANY'S SYSTEM OF DIVIDING PROFITS is peculiarly equitable in its operation. Avoiding, on the one hand, the fault of appropriating unduly large Bonuses to Policies which become early claims—and, on the other hand, that of depriving recent entrants of their just share in the Profits in order to reserve these for a Privileged Class—this system aims at securing to all classes of Policyholders the Bonus Advantages to which they are equitably entitled. The younger Policyholders receive a fair and adequate share of the Profits, while those who survive to middle and later periods of life receive AN INCREASING SHARE in consideration of their larger contributions to the Surplus Funds. THE SHARE OF PROFIT ALLOTTED to each Policyholder is declared in the shape of a BONUS ADDITION TO THE SUM ASSURED, but after it has become vested the Bonus may, when the Assured so desires, be surrendered for its VALUE IN CASH, or applied in REDUCTION OF THE ANNUAL PREMIUM, instead of remaining added to the Policy.

An Intermediate Bonus is Paid in the case of Policies having Bonus Additions already attaching to them, which become Claims between periods of Division of Profits.

SPECIMENS ARE GIVEN in the following Table of the Additions made at the SEVENTH DIVISION OF PROFITS in 1878, to Policies for £1000 each, which had existed throughout the period of Seven Years preceding. THE NON-FORFEITURE SCHEME.

UNDER THIS COMPANY'S COMPREHENSIVE NON-FORFEITURE SCHEME, when the Premiums on a Policy are to be discontinued, the Sum Assured (instead of being forfeited) is simply reduced to an amount proportionate to the payments that have been made. It is only necessary for the Assured to apply to the Office, within the days of grace allowed for payment of the Premium, when the Policy is converted into a Non-Participating PAID-UP POLICY for a reduced Sum on which no further ordinary payments are required.

ATTENTION IS SPECIALLY REQUESTED TO THE FOLLOWING FEATURES OF THE SCHEME :—

(1.) It does not require from the Policyholder a higher rate of payment than that shown in the Company's Ordinary Tables, which are on a strictly moderate scale.

(2.) It is not confined to any particular class of Assurances, but embraces the ORDINARY WHOLE-LIFE POLICIES of the Company, as well as ENDOWMENT-ASSURANCES payable at a Specified Age or at Death, and Assurances effected by a LIMITED NUMBER OF PREMIUMS.

(3.) Its benefits, under the Ordinary Tables, are NOT DEFERRED until a certain number of Premiums have been paid. It applies to Policies of One, Two, or Three Years' duration, as well as to those which remain longer in force.

(4.) Under the regulations of the Company, Policies on this System, effected 'With Participation,' HAVE A FULL SHARE IN THE PROFITS dating from their Commencement, and ceasing only in the event of Premiums being discontinued.

EXAMPLES are given in the following Table of the amount of Paid-up Policy allowed on the discontinuance of Premiums under an Ordinary Whole-Life Policy for £100 "Without Profits."

THE SCOTTISH EQUITABLE

ESTABLISHED  1831

LIFE ASSURANCE SOCIETY.

THE SCOTTISH EQUITABLE is a purely Mutual Office. There are no Shareholders to absorb any portion of the Profits, which are therefore wholly divided among the holders of Participating Policies.

The leading features of the Society are UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, LIBERAL CONDITIONS OF INSURANCE, and EARLY PARTICIPATION IN PROFITS. It has now been in existence for 52 years. For many years past it has taken a leading part in improving and simplifying the contract of life insurance, and has been steadily growing in popular favour. As a consequence of this, the amount of NEW INSURANCES completed in the last year, £640,519, 2s., is the largest ever transacted by the Society.

Position of the Society on 1st March 1883

INCOME		£370,686
Premiums,	£234,343
Interest and Dividends,	108,693
Sundry Profits, etc.,	27,650
EXISTING ASSURANCES		£9,230,034
which include Bonus Additions declared as at the above date.
ACCUMULATED FUND		£2,662,117
being 11·3 times the premiums of the year, and 30·4 per cent of the existing assurances after deduction of the re-insurances of £486,196.

Conditions of Insurance.

The Conditions of the Society's Policies are unusually liberal. The Policies (with few exceptions) become after five years, Indisputable, Whole World, and free from all conditions except payment of the ordinary premium ; age having been proved.

Quinquennial Division of Profits.

At the Thirteenth Division of Profits of the Society, made as at 1st March 1883, the profits realized in the preceding five years were found to be £278,684, of which £19,856 had been paid as Contingent Prospective Bonus Additions to Policies which became claims during the five years. The available surplus enabled the Directors to declare New Bonus Additions to every participating Policy, at the rate of £1, 5s. per cent upon the sum assured and former bonuses, for each year it had been in force since the previous division of profits as at 1st March 1878. If the Bonus had been declared simply upon the original sums assured, it would have been at the rate of £1, 9s. per cent per annum. It varies, however, according to the duration of the policy; being at the rate of £2, 11s. 1d. per cent upon policies issued in the first year of the Society, upon which 52 years' premiums have been paid; £2, 6s. 6d. per cent upon policies of 47 years' standing, and so on.

All the policies issued in the first five years of the Society, which are still in force, and on which no previous bonuses have been surrendered, are now DOUBLED IN AMOUNT.

The total amount of the New Bonus Additions to Policies is £425,157.

The following is an Extract from the Bonus Table, showing the amounts payable under various Policies, for £1000, in the event of death occurring before 1st March 1888:—

Effected on or before 1st March.	Accumulated Sum at 1st March 1883.	Amount payable, if the Assured die after payment of the Premium in the Year ending 1st March
		1884.	1885.	1886.	1887.	1888.
1832	£2169 5 4	£2189 12 1	£2209 18 10	£2230 5 6	£2250 12 3	£2270 19 0
1842	1801 18 8	1818 16 6	1835 14 5	1852 12 3	1869 10 1	1886 8 0
1852	1494 14 4	1508 14 7	1522 14 10	1536 15 1	1550 15 4	1564 15 8
1862	1260 17 3	1272 13 9	1284 10 1	1296 6 6	1308 2 11	1319 19 4
1872	1144 14 2	1155 8 10	1166 3 6	1176 18 1	1187 12 9	1198 7 5

The Vested Bonuses may at any time be surrendered, in whole or in part, for their present value, or applied to reduce the future premiums (for Life or for a period of five years), as the Policyholders may desire.

In 1878 the Bonus was at the rate of £1, 2s. 6d. per cent per annum, as against £1, 5s. on the present occasion, and the Directors have every reason to believe that they will be able to declare in 1888 a Bonus at a still higher rate.

Settlement Policies

with special advantages are granted under the Married Women's Property Act, free from all claims of creditors in the event of subsequent insolvency.

Non-forfeitable Policies are granted by the Society on a new and improved plan, which combines the advantages of Moderate Premiums payable during a limited number of years (11, 22, or 33); Ultimate Participation in the Profits; Fixed Surrender Values; and the issue, without special application, of Paid-up Policies. This plan is peculiarly suitable in the case of Settlement Policies; since, if the assured is unable to pay the premium and keep the policy in force for its full amount, the family get the benefit of the reduced paid-up policy, without any application to the Directors being necessary. For the purpose of comparison, the premiums under the plan payable for 22 years are given below, together with the Ordinary Whole Term With-Profit Rates.

YEARLY PREMIUMS for Assurance of £100 payable at death.

A.—Premiums under the ordinary system, payable for the whole of life, with participation in profits from the date of the Policy.

B.—Premiums under the Non-Forfeitable Plan, payable for 22 years only, with participation in profits after the payment of premium ceases.*
